ACTIVITIES

Floodlights blind, beams penetrate, streams of light flicker, then streak down from above to the stage as all eyes focus on East.
Students active, radiating, participating.

Physical Change

Rockford East grew and changed throughout the summer, but the traditions of the school remained the same . . . the same spirit, the same standards, the same goals.

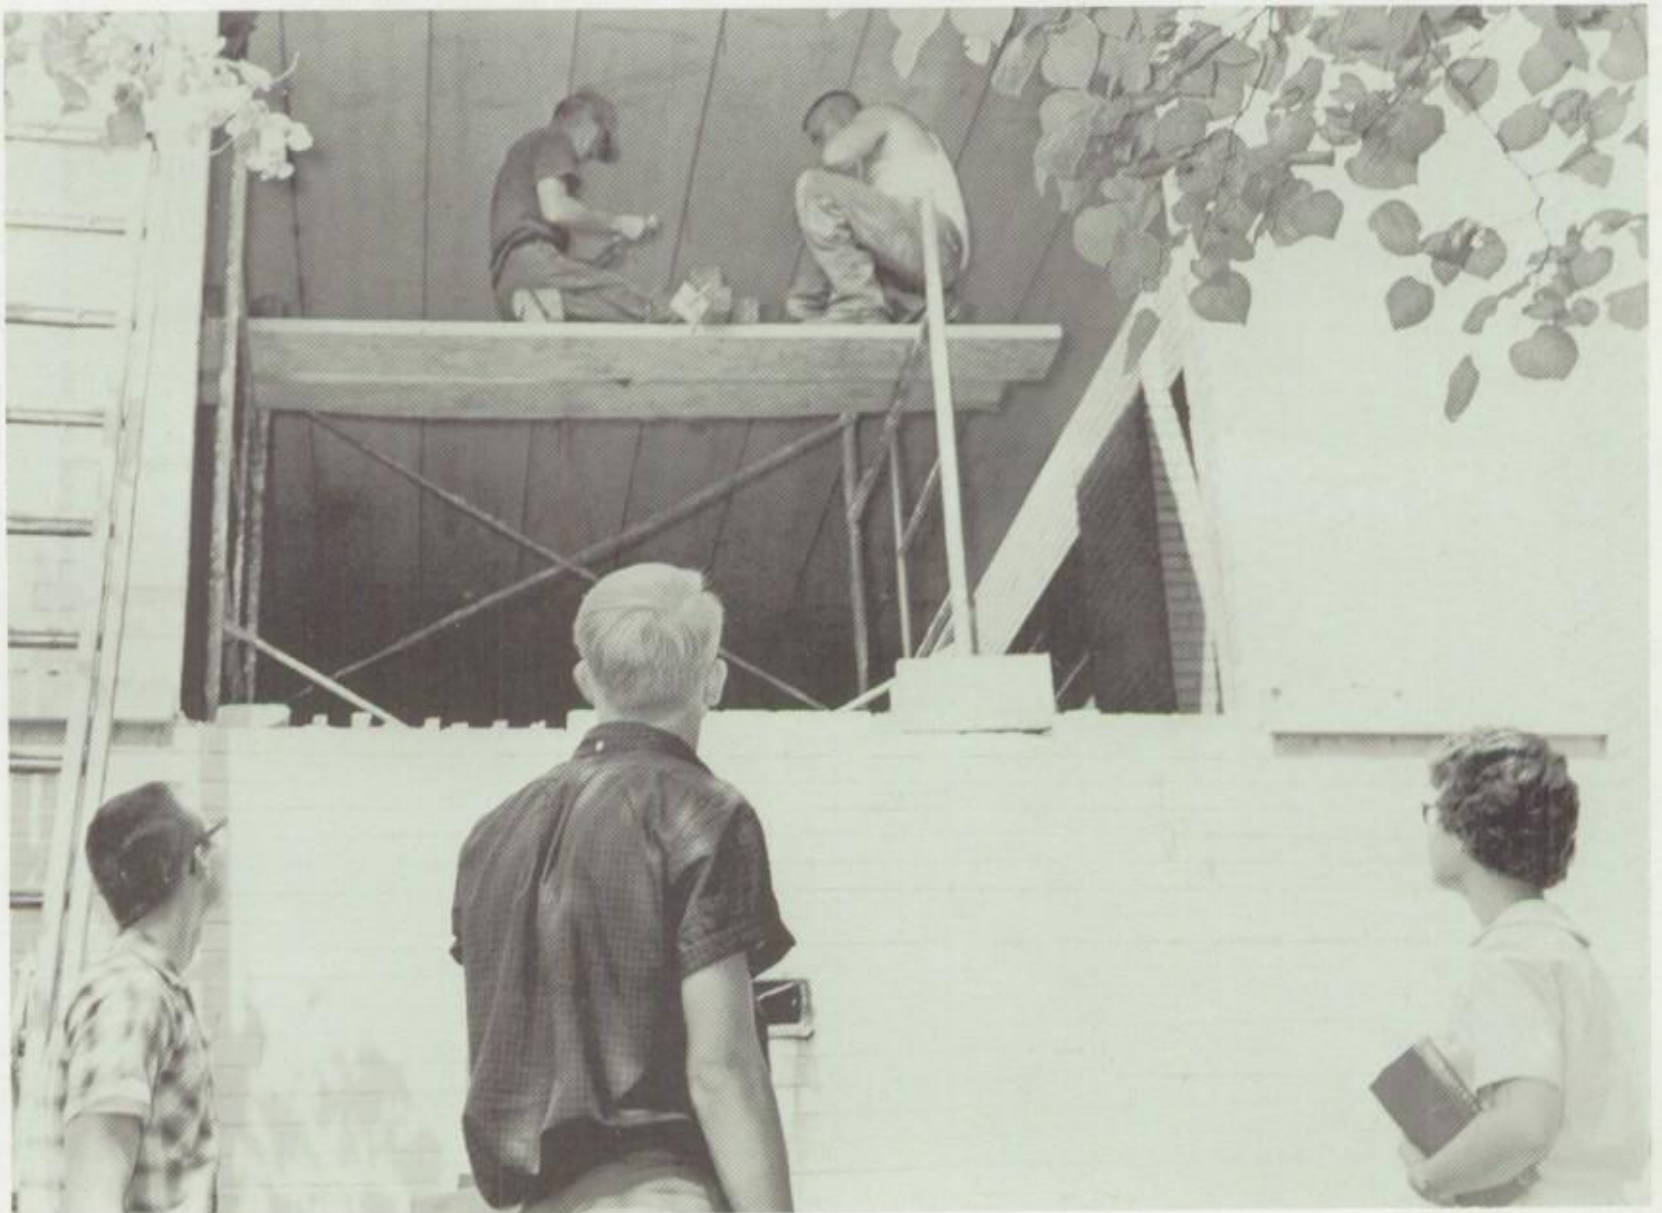

Apparent was the construction of the new athletic fields and faculty workrooms. . . the modern language lab. . . the new cafeteria floor free from hazardous flaws. . . the loss of Rockford's once beautiful elm trees due to the vicious Dutch Elm disease. All of these changed the exterior slightly.

Laughter and learning mixed as students stepped into the familiar pace. Laughter after school. Learning, not only in classes, but through experience and curiosity. . . seeing history made . . . the first man in orbit . . . tension over Berlin, Laos, the Congo. All these awakened a new interest in foreign lands.

CHERYL BROWN and Jack Clark inspect a grim reminder of the decline of Rockford's distinction as "the Forest City."

PLASTERERS HASTEN to complete the new teachers' workrooms, as Craig Wieneke, Dave Wiesland and Carol M. Johnson look on.

Does Not Alter Traditional East High Spirit

CHUCK WELLINGTON, Teresa Lucey, Barb Stitzel, Jack Clark and Gary Swanson return, eager to discuss their summer with old and new acquaintances.

LINGERING FOR A MOMENT after school, Gary Swanson, Gary Cramer and Gerry Fisher look forward to their first game upon the new athletic field.

MEMBERS OF EAST'S first equestrian club, Karen Bakkum, Betty Fredberg and Diane Bobitt, reward their horse, Jay, with a large red apple.

Variety and Ingenuity Characterize Choice

Yo-yo's staged a whirlwind comeback among all classes, primarily among the male half.

Perhaps to correlate with President Kennedy's program of physical fitness, the "Twist" and "Limbo," dances requiring considerable concentration and coordination, stood out in a trend that swept East High and the entire country.

Horseback - riding enthusiasts formed the first riding club in East High history, and the general aim seemed to be toward lively activities, proving that American youth are not "getting soft."

ANN JOHNSON and Gary Stried pause to discuss new classes and teachers.

KATHY ZAHM and Jeff Zircher, the last girl and boy in the alphabet, point out the newspaper article revealing equality, at least in number, of girls and boys at East.

Activities Throughout Year

As winter approached, brightly colored furry hats, perched atop hairdos featuring the bouffant style, revealed the many exciting colors typical of this year.

Equality of the sexes really existed at East since the announced enrollment at the beginning of the year was 1132 boys and 1132 girls.

Ukelele strumming and sweater knitting provided sharp contrasts in girls' activity choices. Although not necessarily new, these diversions show that many pastimes of years ago still prove enjoyable even in this quickly-moving jet age.

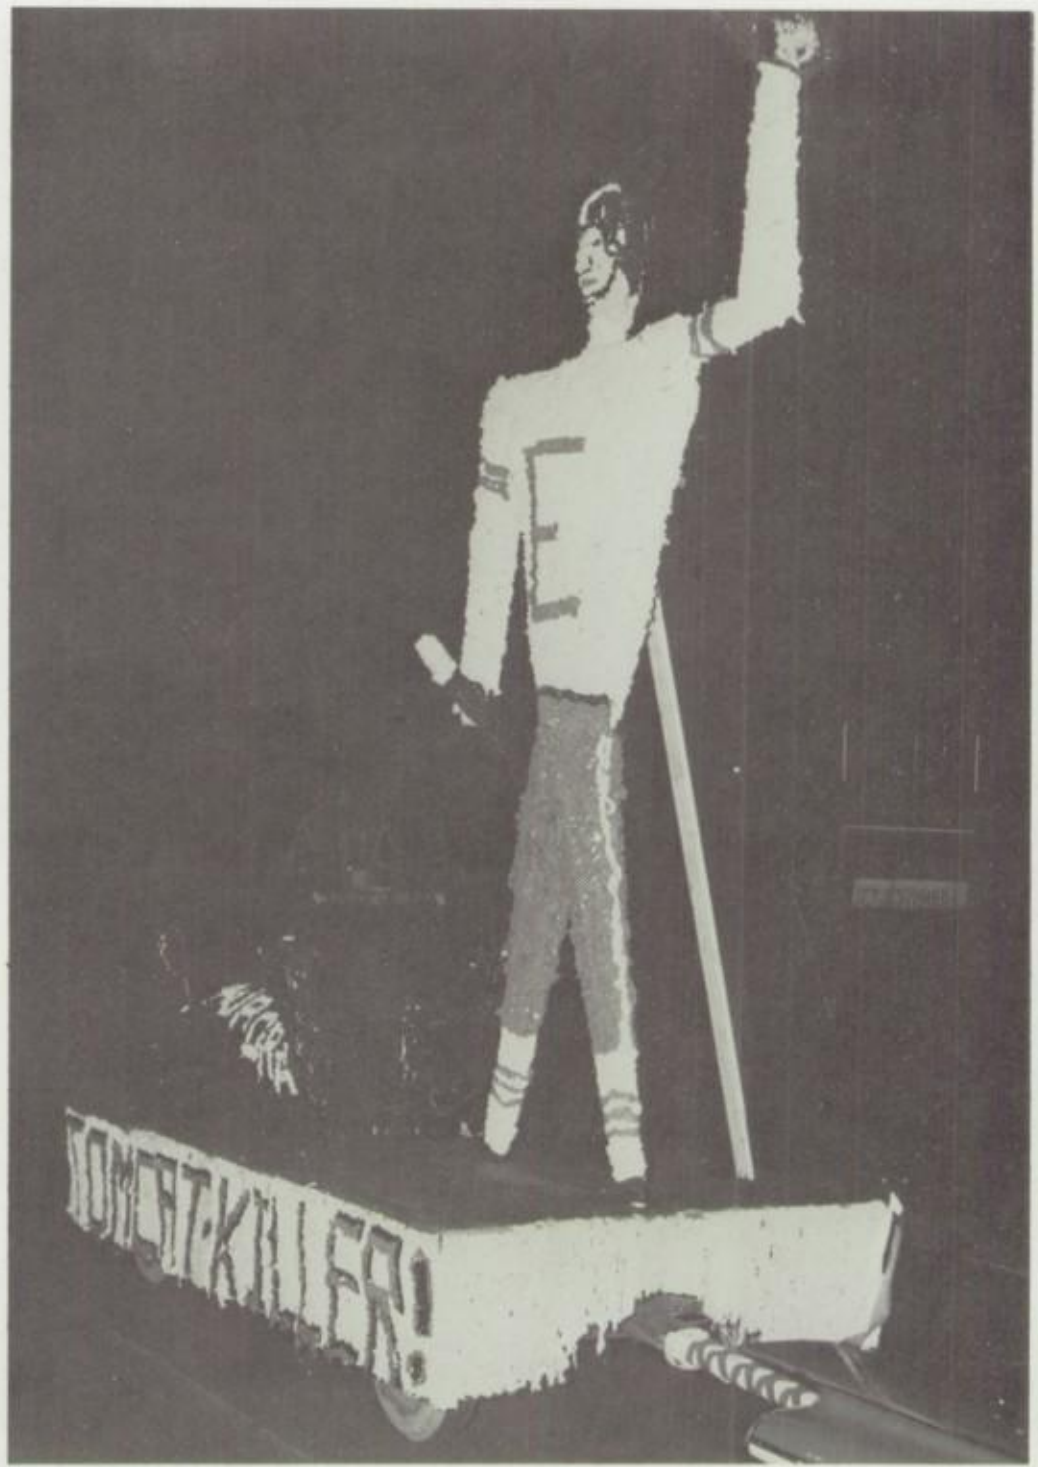

YO-YO EXPERTS, Bob Walker and Gary Swanson, demonstrate their ability to "walk" a yo-yo.

History Repeats Itself with

IN THE CLOSING MOMENTS of the game, ardent fan, Don Rosene, scrambles up the goal post for a souvenir.

RISING TALL and straight against the sky, the Dolphin Club float seems to predict a victory.

Before a capacity crowd of cheering fans flashed a picture from the past as they witnessed the second Rab Homecoming victory in three years over the Aurora "Tomcats."

Spirits buoyed up by the hard, fast game, the enthusiastic crowd saw Pat Mayfield crowned Homecoming Queen.

After the announcement climaxing the halftime ceremonies, the radiant Queen and her two senior attendants were escorted to a throne constructed by the class of '62. From this seat of honor, they reigned over the varsity game.

Second Homecoming Victory over East Aurora

QUEEN PATRICIA MAYFIELD, center, and her attendants, Cindy Stonefield and Verinha de Moraes, smile happily as their car passes slowly by the stands.

"Indian Summer," the theme chosen for Homecoming festivities, was depicted at the dance by murals copied from paintings by McCutcheon, entitled "Injun Summer."

Interrupting the dance for a brief moment were the victorious team members who came up from the locker room to share in the final moments of Homecoming celebration.

As the dance ended, the many alumni present pensively recalled their own Homecomings and their "best moments" at East.

MANY DAYS OF ANTICIPATION come to a climax as Pat Mayfield receives the queen's bouquet from Chuck Wellington, president of Student Council. Looking on are runners-up Cindy Stonefield and Verinha de Moraes and escorts Craig Carlson and Tom Hallock.

International Friendships Promote World

DELIGHT SHINES in the eyes of Verinha de Moraes and Jurgen Anlauf as they anticipate their first spoonful of an "85-cent Special."

*Has the UN outlived its usefulness?
Is World War III a certainty?*

Such questions were debated in International Relations Club, which was reorganized this year and indicated the active interest of East High students in world affairs.

AFS students, Verinha de Moraes from Brazil and Jurgen Anlauf from Germany, exemplified the kinship of students from all lands.

Visitors from Pakistan offered first hand news of Asian problems and afforded the opportunity for stimulating conversation on topics ranging from Nehru and India to Communism.

MRS. TILLA, Mr. Rashid, and Mrs. Irfan, visitors from Pakistan, are intrigued by the efficient cafeteria system of American schools.

DISPLAYING a Russian peasant cap and a nest of dolls, Miss Mary Hills and Jerry McGill relate their experiences in Europe to Jody Johnson, president of IRC.

Two different worlds were seen by the audiences of "Song of Norway," this year's operetta. In the simple world of folk music and light-hearted people were the three childhood friends, Edvard Grieg (Larry Turnquist), Nina Hagerup (Judy Stonis), and Rikard Nordraak (Rich Jensen).

But with the Countess Louisa Giovanni (Sue Williams) and her debonair husband Count Pepe LeLoup (Craig Carlson) came a world of elegant concerts and lavish manners. When these two worlds met, heartbreak resulted.

Stirring Music o

"PAPA, you've been drinking aquavite!" Mama Greig (Patsy Nelson) admonishes Papa Grieg (Gary Johnson).

MAESTRO PISONI (Rich Gambini) is overjoyed at the Countess' decision to sing "La Traviata" for him.

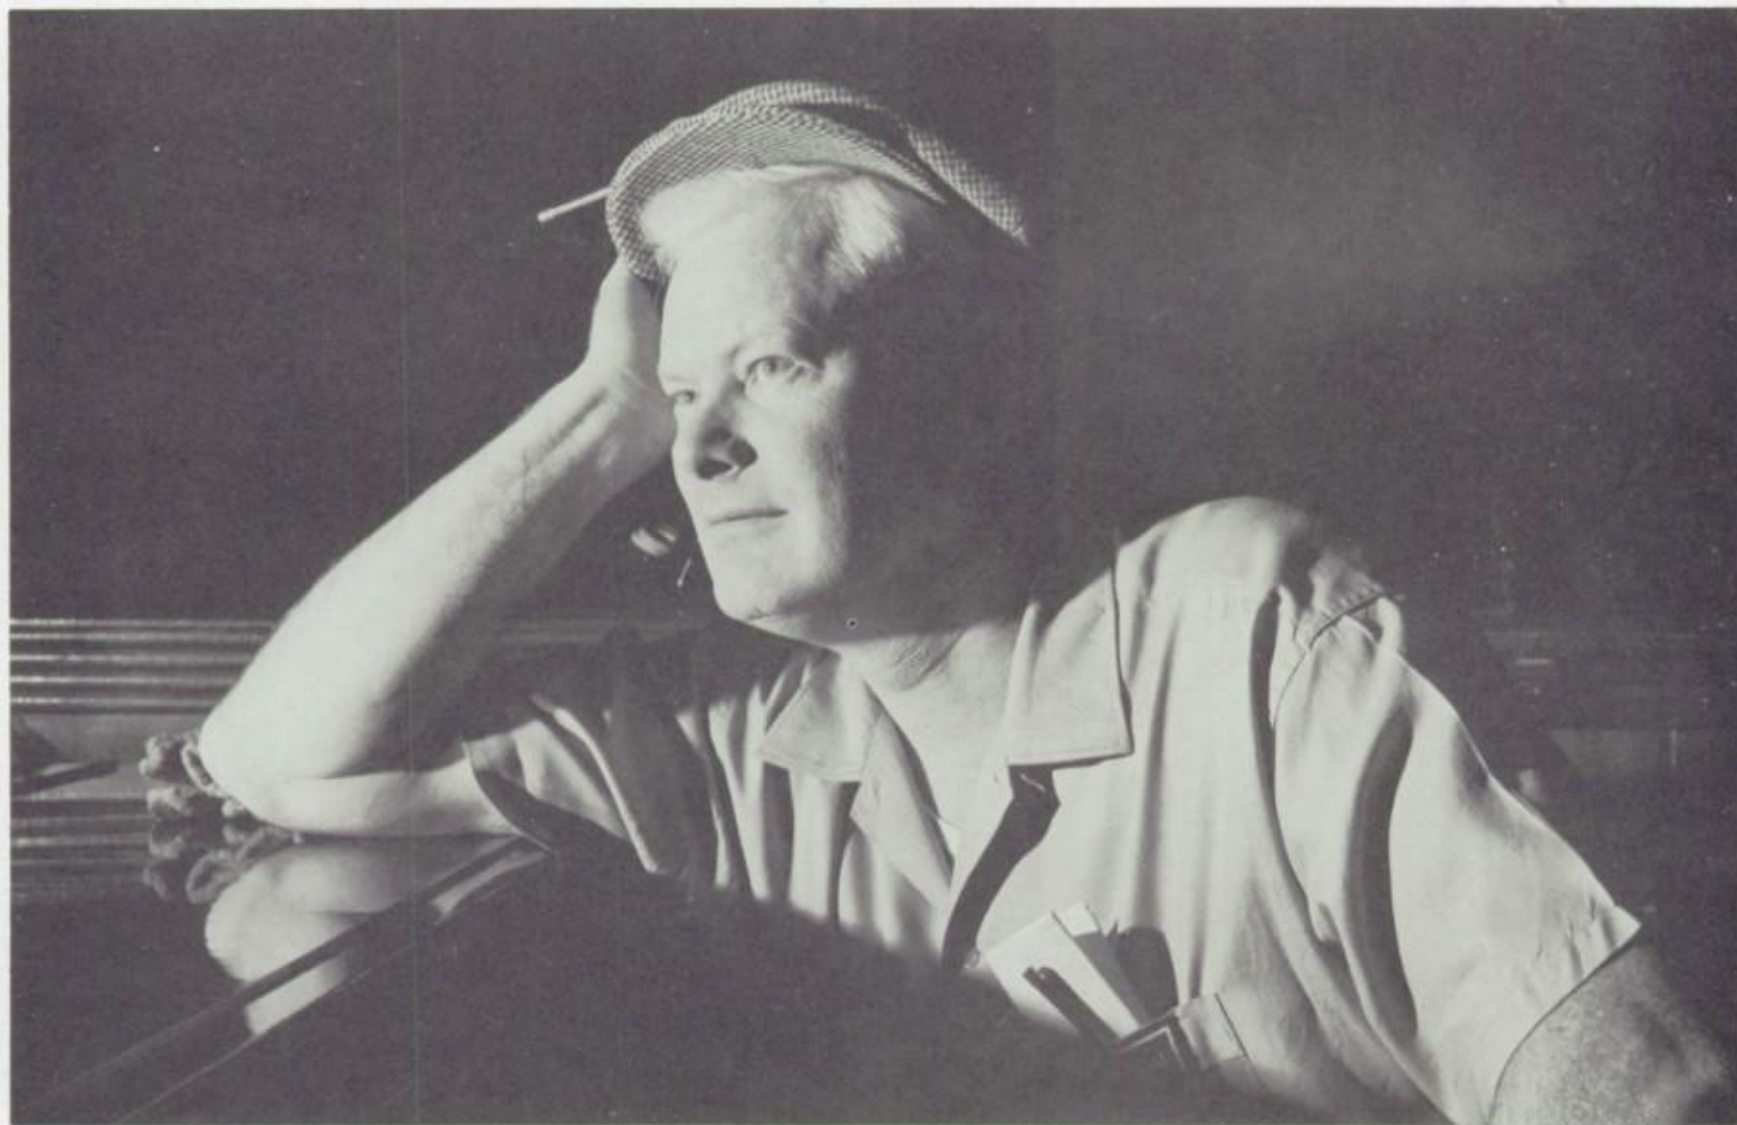

Behind the scenes action was as exciting as the performance itself. Student Directors Carol M. Johnson and Pat Williams struggled to assemble the choruses; the stage crew scurried rapidly to change the complex scenery.

Although the final curtain culminated weeks of preparation for the cast of 150, the work of the "unsung heroes" was only half finished. Each setting had to be taken apart and stored, each costume cleaned and repaired for future use.

WITH HER HAND clasped in his, Nina promises to marry Edvard.

Grieg Echoes from 'Land of Fjords'

TIME OUT. Mr. Connell, orchestra director, enjoys a release from the pressures of operetta rehearsal.

Juniors Dramatize Problems of Sophistication

Becoming a smooth, sophisticated teenager overnight is no easy task, as Cathy Baldwin (Sandy Jacobson) sadly discovered in this year's junior play, "Smarter and Smoother." Guided by her beauty columnist sister Iris (Sandy Brown) and her ultra-sleek friend Sandy (Linda Alm), Cathy followed a careful plan for capturing basketball player Phil (Bob Eksten.) Also caught in the confusion were Allen (Steve Sealin), Iris' boyfriend and Cathy's parents (Judy Hoerr, Mike Allen).

THE FACES of Iris, Allen, Mrs. Baldwin, and Phil register dismay and shock as Cathy confesses she has swallowed perfume in another futile attempt to become "smooth."

MISS LEWIS, Sandy, Arleen, and Cynthia discuss Cathy's naive approach to the art of "catching a man." Miss Lewis is Laura Bloomquist, Arleen is Pat McGarey, and Cynthia is Britta Severin.

DONNING BRIGHTLY - COLORED furry hats, Carol Kilgore, Nancy Johnson, Verinha de Moraes, and Barb Stitzel enjoy a swift toboggan ride.

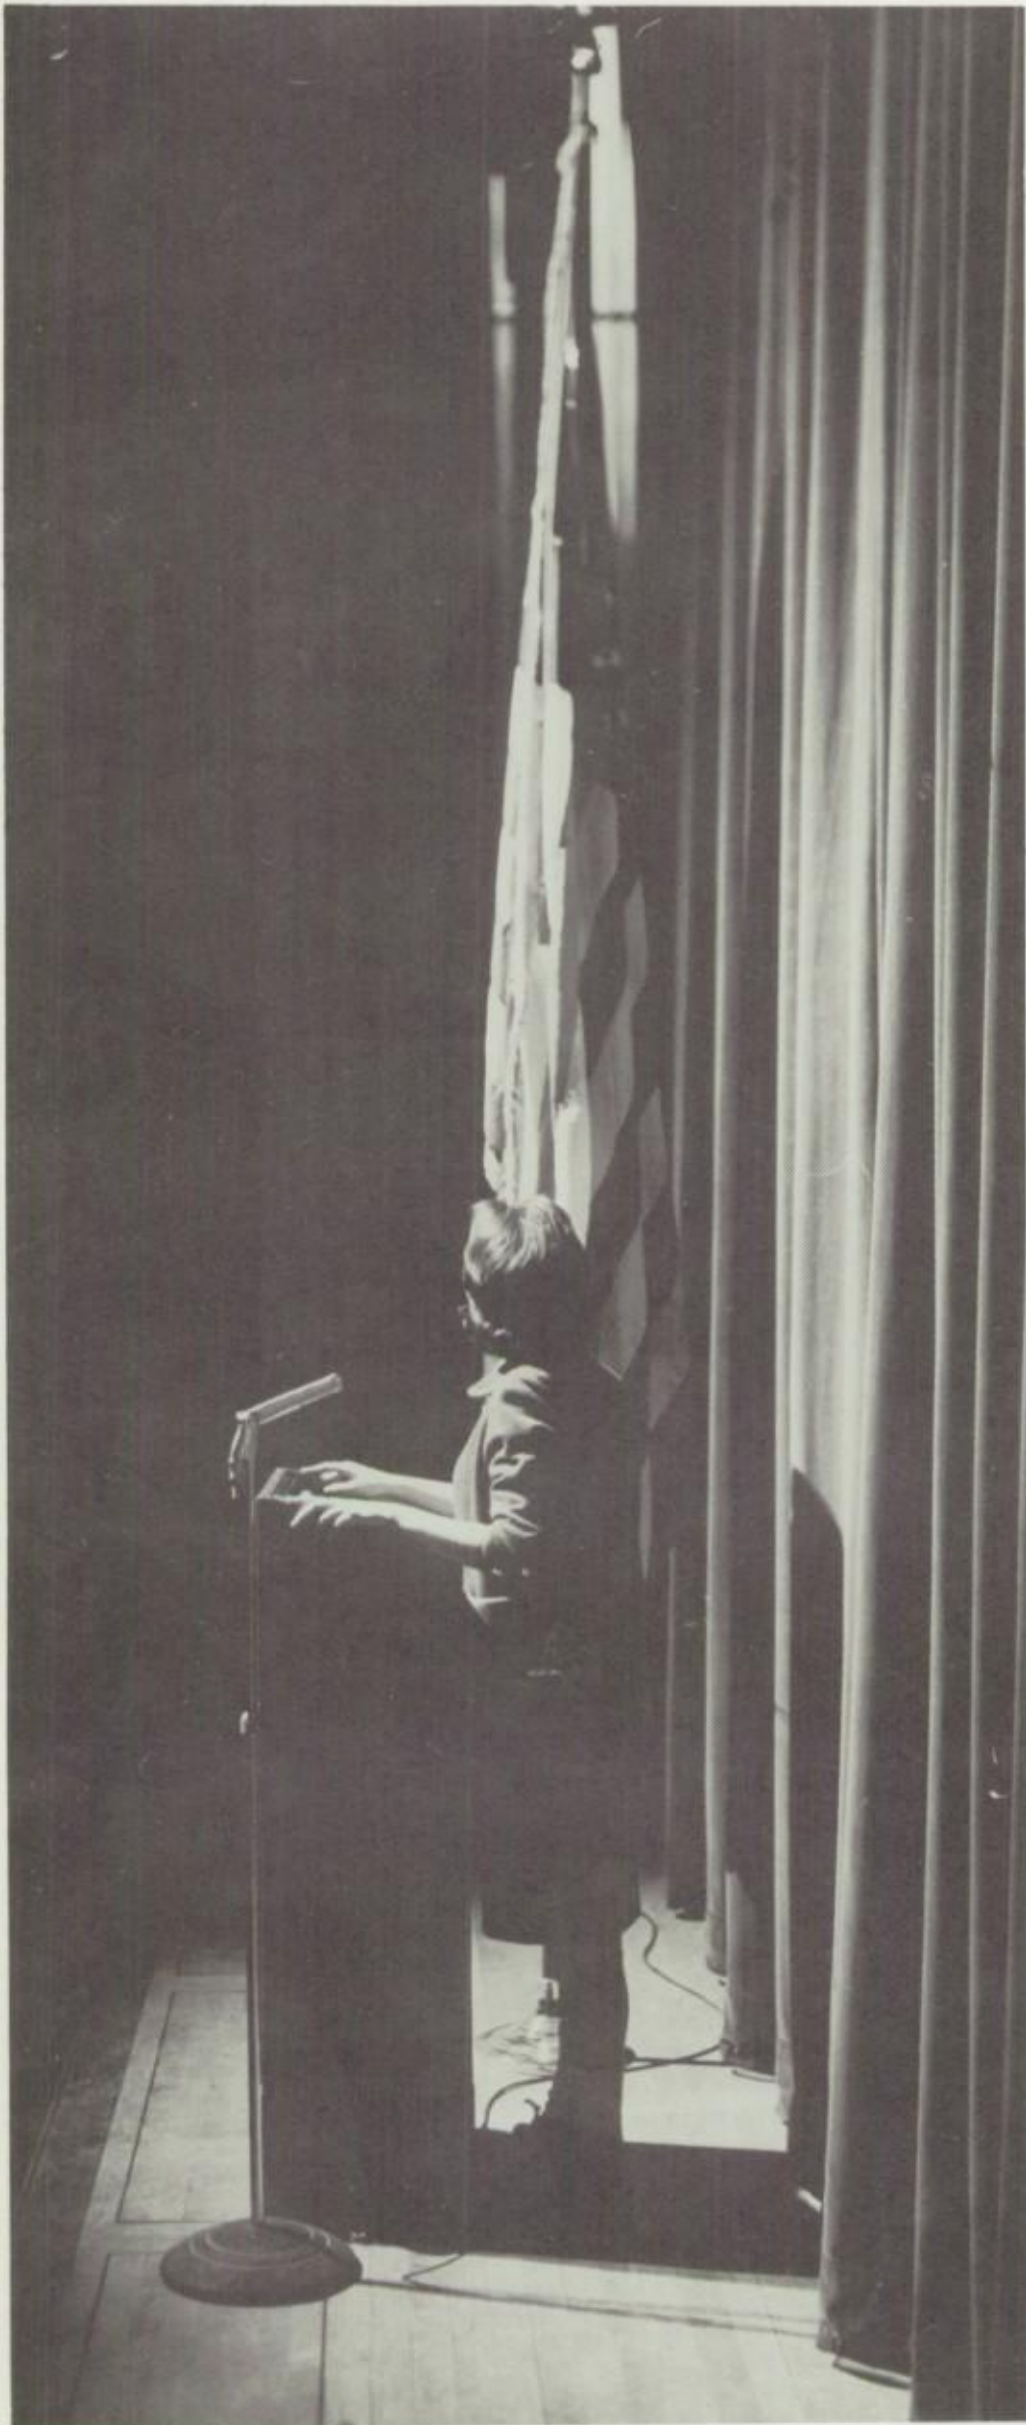

Holiday Gatherings Create Carefree Spirit

Winter, with its gay parties, exhilarating sports, and holiday traditions, was especially memorable this year due to the record snowfalls and low, low temperatures. To juniors, "Noel," the annual prom, provided a festive air. To all students the towering, flocked senior Christmas tree was a reminder of the Christmas vacation to come, two carefree weeks of "getting away from it all."

CHERI KABERG and Jim Freed marvel at the transformation of the familiar gym.

Community Opportunities

"I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE . . ."

RON HUNBORG takes advantage of the mobile X-Ray unit.

Young and old alike are aware of the uncertainty of the nuclear space age. Bomb shelters, once a joke, have become essentials in many homes. New frontiers in medicine and science are still to be met and overcome. To help students prepare for their role in the future, the community offers worthwhile opportunities to learn responsibility — Junior Achievement, Young Republican and Democrat groups, and Junior Woman's Club. The community and school work together to share with others through Red Cross, March of Dimes, Community Chest drives.

Preview Responsibilities Ahead

JANE BRAZZELL and Paul Dixon demonstrate the skill required to play "Shoot to the Moon," a game produced by Stilco, Jane's JA company.

MR. JIM COOK, narrator of the General Motors stage show, "Previews of Progress," exhibits a suitcase containing a gyroscope, which seems to rotate of its own accord, to Rick Mera and Kathy Murawski.

Gay Nineties Era Returns with 'Fourth Review'

"Fourth Review," the annual talent show, sparkled with firecrackers, John Philip Sousa marches, and other typical Fourth of July festivity, as gaily-attired performers displayed their versatility while celebrating 1890 style.

HARMONY IS RESTORED between Mike Olson and Barbara Ahr through the efforts of Mr. Leonard Becker.

"WE AUTO'VE STAYED HOME," declare Sue Muehlemeyer and Ann Weigel despite the gleeful expressions of Barb Stitzel and Anne Gullickson after Mary Ellen Carlson's stern command.

DOLPHIN QUEEN Donna Melquist and her attendants, Rosi Ekstrom and Jill Holmquist, remain after the show as friends stop to congratulate them.

Candlelight Procession Climaxes Dolphin Show

Slapstick humor, precision diving, and water ballets combined to make the 22nd annual Dolphin Show, "Roarin' 20's," an interesting evening's entertainment.

High point of the three performances was the crowning of Queen Donna Melquist by Dolphin Club President Jay Bailey.

As the various acts progressed, spectators who sat near the edge of the pool were splashed continually, a necessary hazard in any water show.

SPECTATORS have a preview of the forthcoming Dorado Show as Judy Olson, Sandy Pellant, Carolyn Karceski, and Ann Johnson perform.

COLONEL Philip Geishert presents a traditional medallion to Battle Group Sponsor Kathryn McConoughey at the military ball.

Learning by doing — this is the time-tested method, and through school organizations many students learn by serving both classmates and teachers.

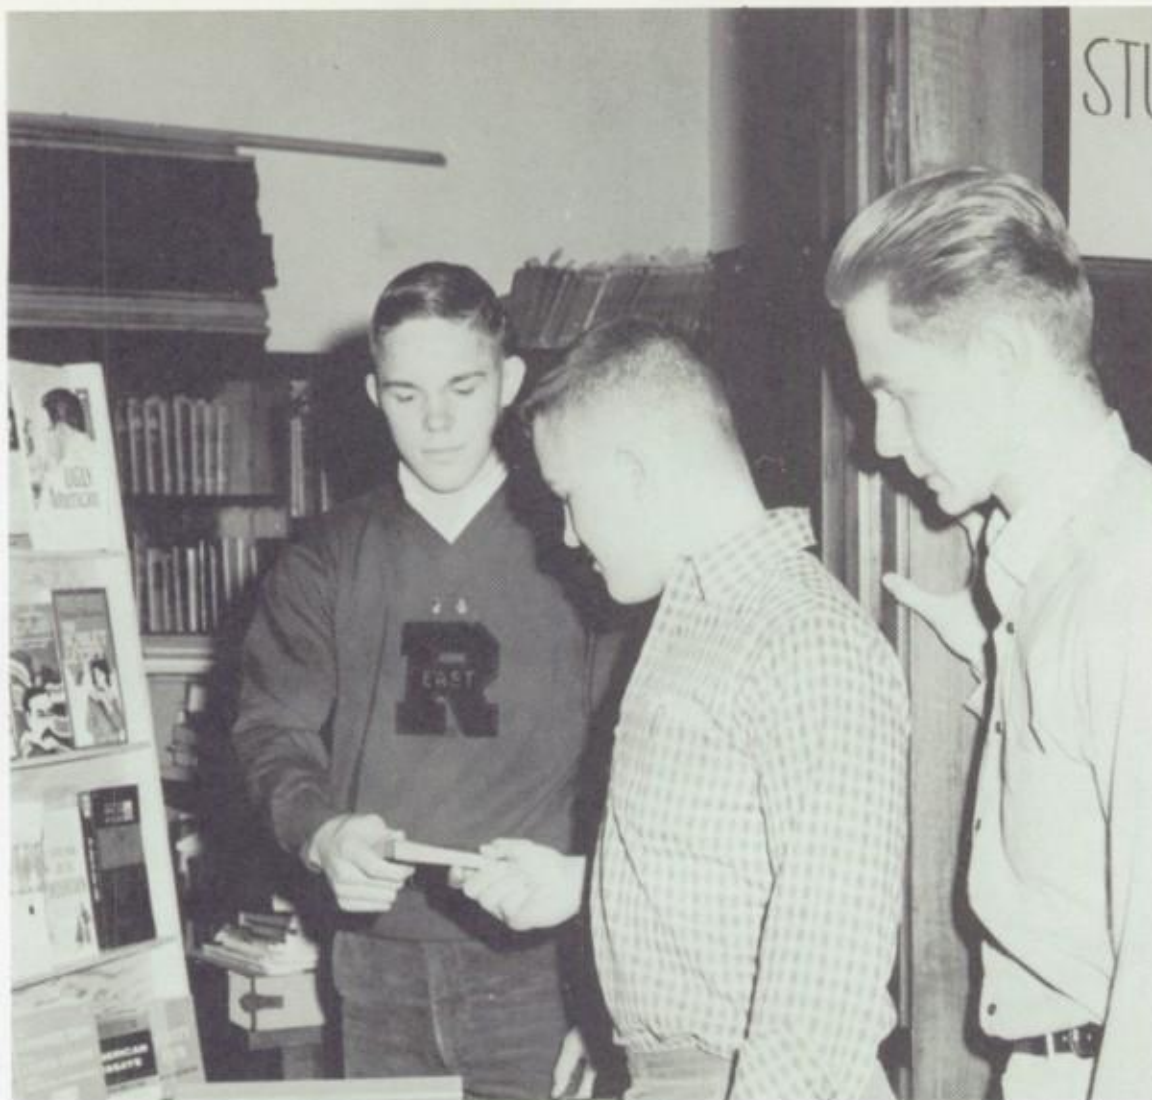

ROTC members perform many duties — daily by raising and lowering the outside flag, and during the year by ushering at football games and special assemblies.

Elected representatives learn by planning and organizing school projects — experience for the future.

Students Discover

EAGERLY AWAITING election results, Gordon Nelson, John Akerlund, and Jan Geiger relieve their tension by studying or conversing.

ON THEIR WAY to homeroom, Stan Martenson and Dave Gulbrandsen pause to purchase a book from Paul Elmquist at the Student Book Center.

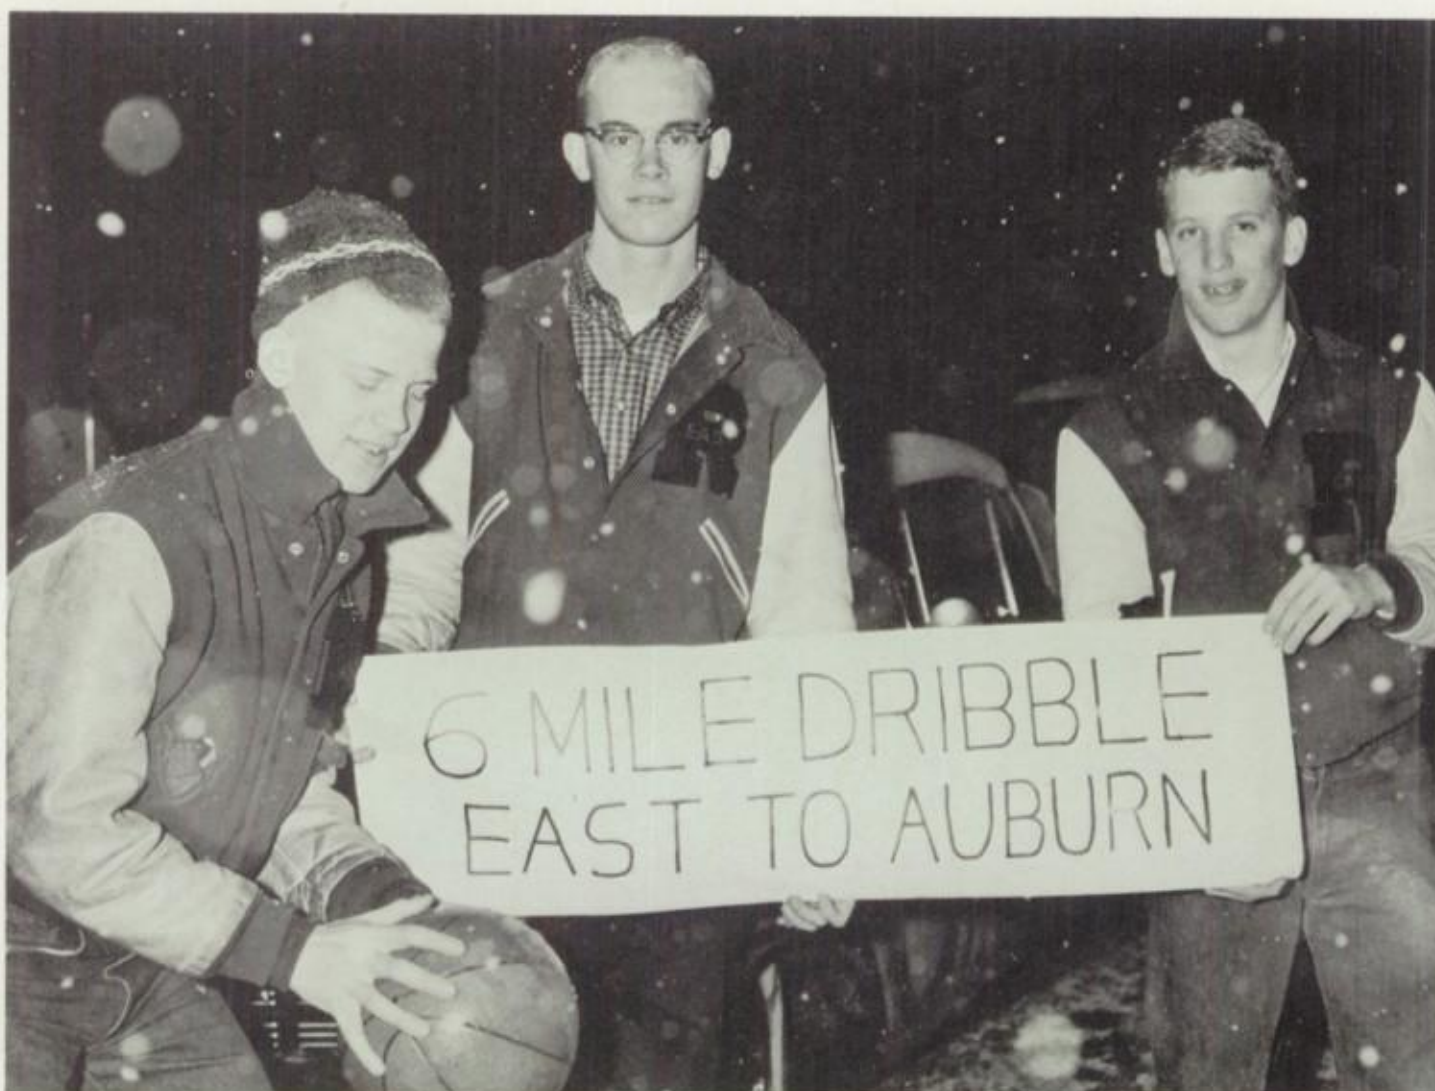

Ways To Combine Pleasure with Service

New ideas are essential to progress. Such progress was evident this year in the establishment of the Student Book Center, which serves as a convenient source of good reading in the form of paperbacks.

Debate members learn to develop their own ideas through an exchange of words and arguments. The debate season is longer than that of any other competitive team at East, and in the course of a year, the debaters travel hundreds of miles.

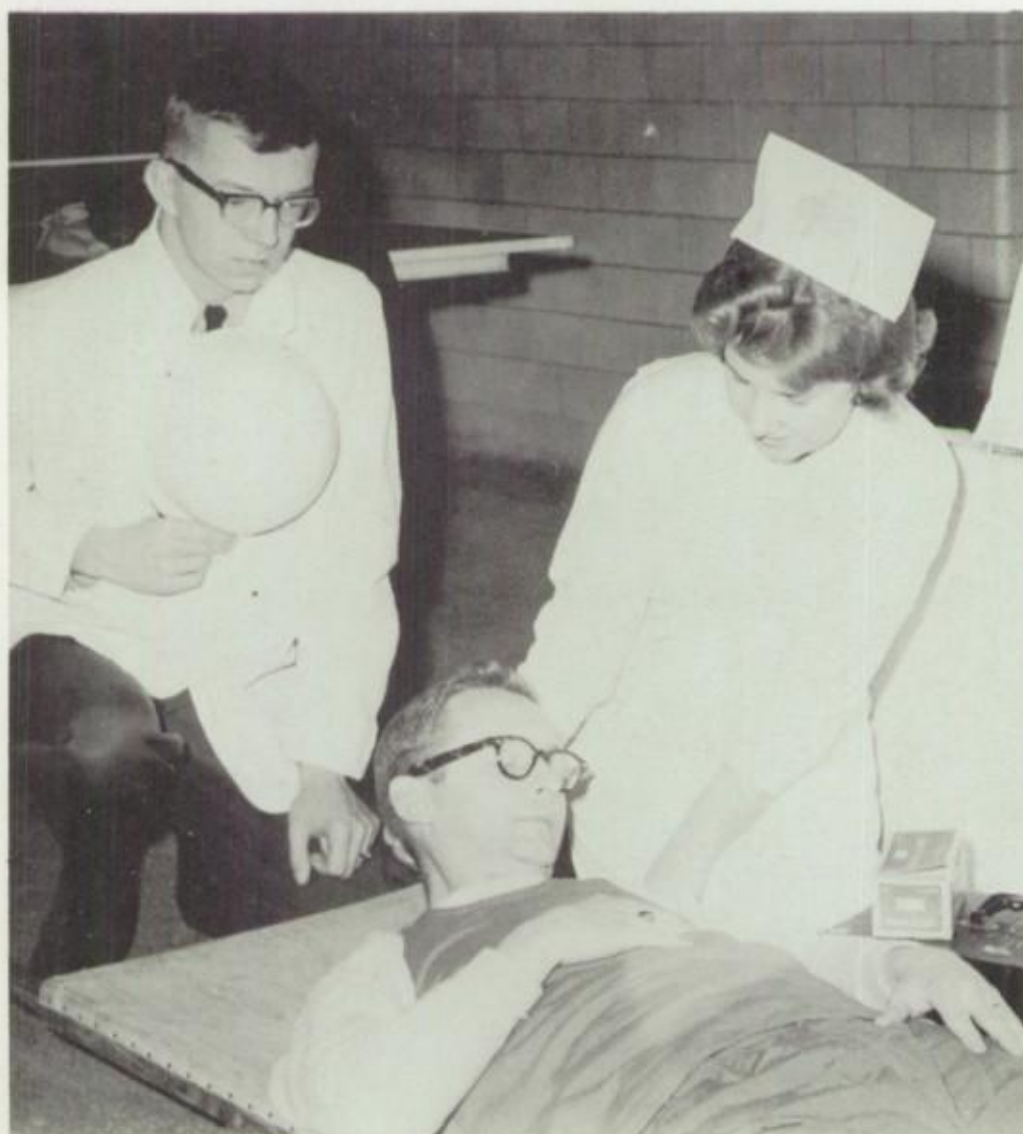

ONE OF THE OFTEN UNNOTICED services of debate team members Phil Johnson, Paul Anderson, Marcia Dana, and Steve Sealin consists of managing the check room at basketball games.

IN DRIZZLING RAIN AND SNOW, Al Torgerson, Jerry Fisher, and Sam Stonefield prepare to lead a caravan of cars to the East-Auburn game.

Stunts, Cheering Crowds, Illustrate Team Spirit

Students thrilled to wins, were disappointed at losses, but enthusiasm and good sportsmanship retained their importance. Team spirit, an important part of any school, takes many different forms — crazy stunts and skits, boldly-lettered banners, crowds cheering themselves hoarse — and, even after the regular season had finished, the AFS R-Club - Faculty basketball game drew a large crowd.

EXCITEMENT of the Student-Faculty game proves too much for Mr. William Dolan, who receives first aid from members of the half-time skit, Bill Larsen and Sue Muehlemeyer.

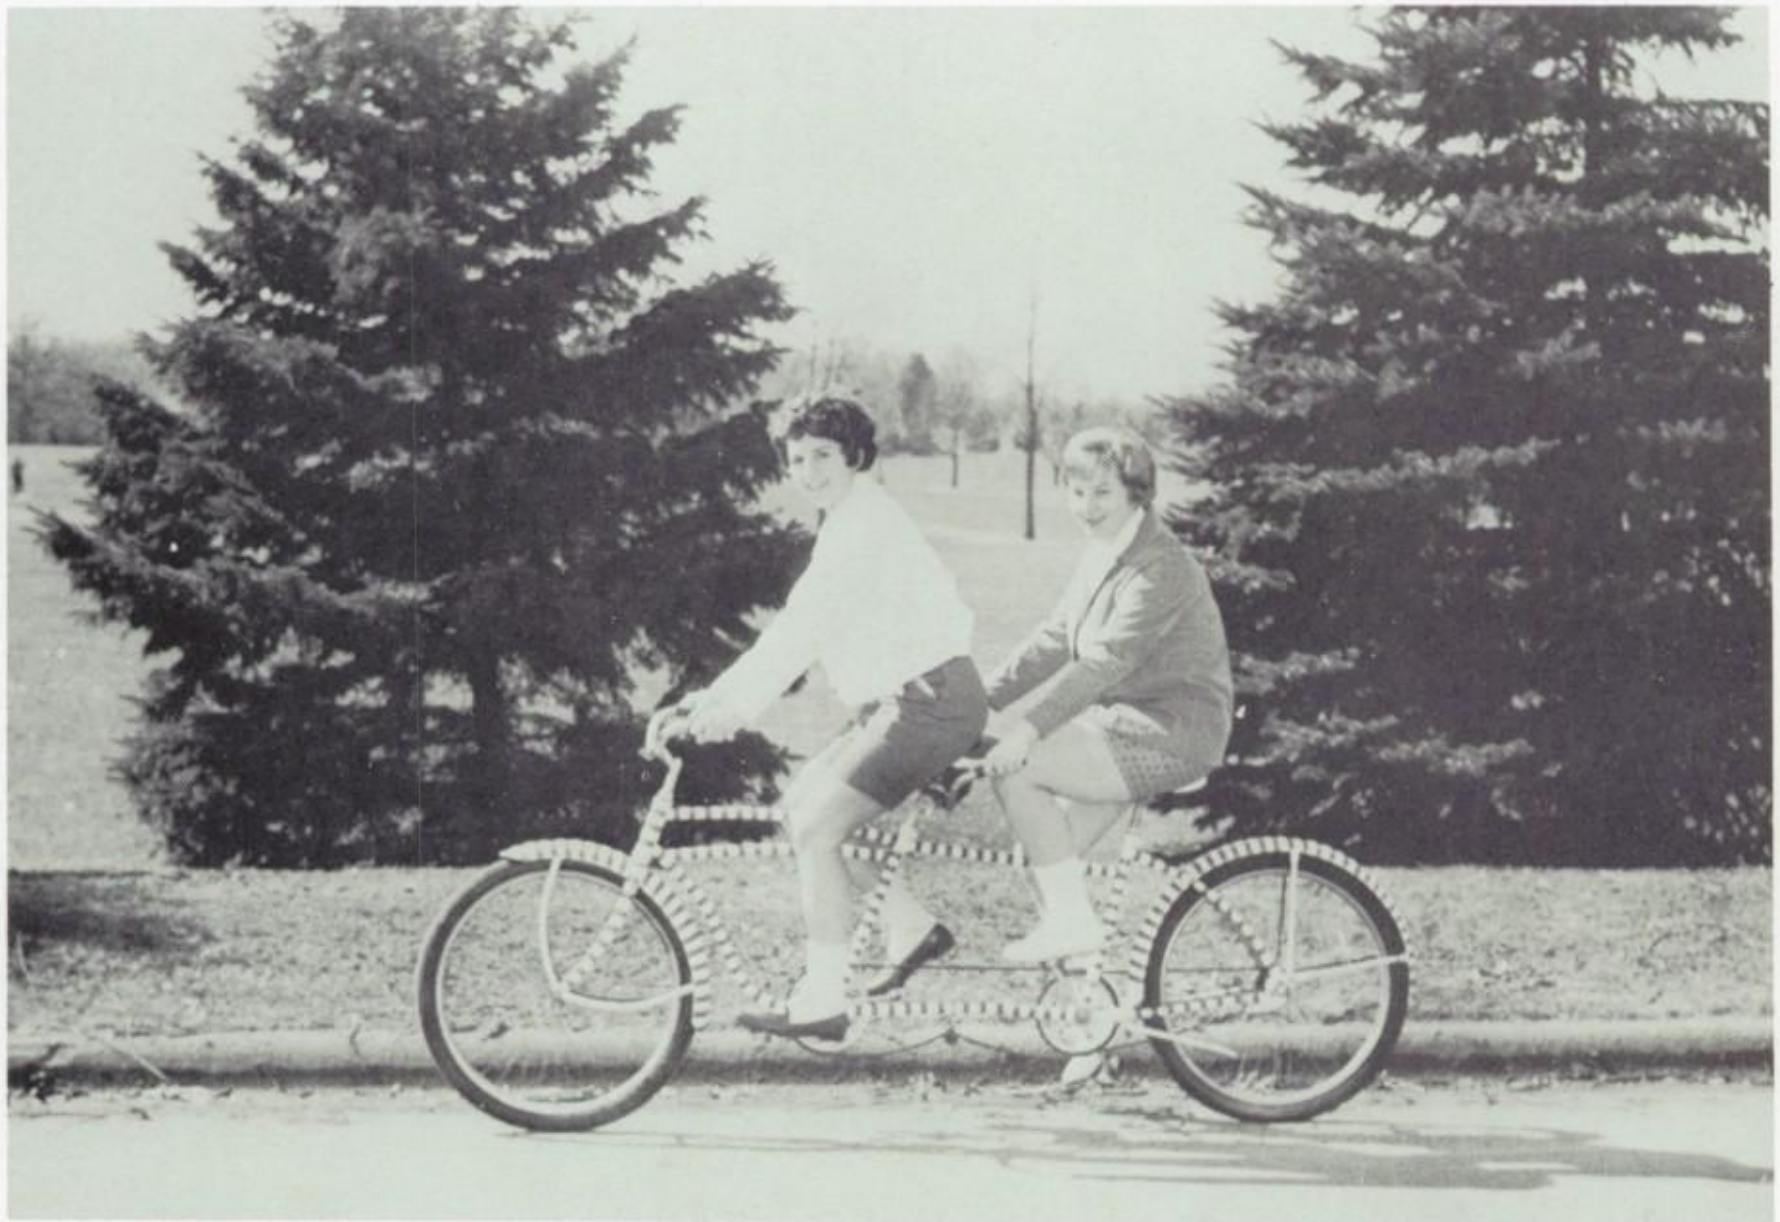

Arrival of Spring Encourages Outdoor Activity

And spring fever struck again. As trees and grass began to turn green, students came to life and began counting the remaining days of school.

Spring activities provided a release for pent-up energy — bike hikes, baseball, picnics, and on the social side, the sophomore party.

FIRST SIGNS of spring invite Kathy Branca and Brita Solem to enjoy the fresh air and warm sunshine.

LOUNGING in the living room of the "Footlights Club," Pat (Pam Gahlbeck), Big Mary (Karen Kjellquist), Little Mary (Vicki Cedarleaf), and Bobby (Jan Brown), leisurely pass a Sunday morning.

Mutual Interests Draw Girls to 'Footlights Club'

Minks and pajamas, glamour and boredom — "Stage Door," this year's senior class play, displayed these contrasts.

Dreams of stardom actually came true for Jean Maitland (Ann Weigel), who became a Hollywood star. Struggling playwright Keith Burgess (Mike Lagerman) found luxury as a Hollywood writer. Throughout the play, however, David Kingsley (Craig Carlson), a Hollywood promotions man, encouraged Terry Randall (Barb Johnston), a sincere actress, to continue her struggle for success on the Broadway stage. In the end, of course, Terry's persistence won out.

KEITH BURGESS (Mike Lagerman) assumes a sophisticated air as Judith (Diane Bobitt) and Terry (Barb Johnston) playfully mock him.

R-Club, Students Choose Spring Relays Queen

Highlighting the spring sports season was the crowning of Queen Sandy Pellant at the Annual Rockford East Relays May 5.

As she and her attendants, Mary Ellen Carlson, Anne Gullickson, Carolyn Karceski and Ann Weigel were presented to the crowd of spectators at Beyer Stadium, Queen Sandy received the traditional bouquet of roses from Gary Stried, president of R-Club.

Chosen from sixteen girls nominated by R-Club members, the five finalists were elected by the student body on April 3.

Following the meet, a dance attended by R-Club members and their dates was held in honor of the queen and her court.

Seniors Leave Old Ties, Seek New Adventures

Seniors leave behind many memories . . . the first day at East, participation in school activities, finally the senior year climaxed by the prom, Commencement . . . some disappointments, many worthwhile experiences.

Fresh and bright is the future . . . new friends, preparations for college or new jobs, the exhilarating feeling of independence, self-reliance. One last summer in which to be carefree.

MR. W. RAY McINTOSH, Superintendent of Schools

Planning Rockford's fourth new high school, Guildford; compiling another school boundary rezoning; concentrating on the most adequate equipment, texts, films; meeting the need for secondary school language labs; investigating programmed learning. These problems and a host of others were on the busy agenda of Superintendent of Schools W. Ray McIntosh and the Board of Education. Their chief concern — Rockford's 27,472 young people in the public schools. Their dedication — unsurpassed.

School Board Determines Administrative Policies

OFFICIALS of the Board are: Seated, Miss Vera Walling, administration assistant; Mr. Alan C. Mattison, president; Mr. W. R. McIntosh, superintendent; Standing, Mr. Roger Reno, attorney; Mr. Kenneth Orton, assistant to the superintendent; Miss Anne Gustafson, elementary schools superintendent; Mr. Gerald Raasch, director of building and grounds; and Mr. Arthur Johnson, assistant to the superintendent of schools.

CHIEF CONCERNS of the Building and Grounds Committee are recommending employees for maintenance, repair and upkeep of building and grounds, and reporting on the construction of proposed buildings. Members are Mr. Ronald Lindsey, Mr. David W. Johnson, chairman, and Mr. Richard J. Stank.

APPOINTMENTS of positions on the Business Administration staff, budgeting, provision of funds, purchasing, and receiving requisitions are the duties of the Finance and Purchasing Committee — Mr. Angelo L. Spoto, Mr. Clifford P. Carlson, chairman, Mr. Gordon Skee.

Students interested in the study of English have an opportunity to select classes which best suit their needs and interests. For example, newswriting, a prerequisite to publications, offers journalistic training along with the required studies of junior English. In the senior year students choose between a course in English literature and a review of world literature. Related subjects are speech, which brings poise and confidence in public speaking, and dramatics, which builds a background in history and techniques of drama.

The lab is also used for variation; the room fills with music as students sing along with records of foreign songs.

Mathematics Curriculum

Educators and the general public have led a nationwide emphasis toward higher mathematics at the high school level. Hence, East's math department is undergoing constant change. There is no longer a solid geometry class, but a combination of solid and analytical geometry. Since algebra is now offered in the eighth grade, advanced courses must be devised to continue the math program through the senior year. In the planning stage is a class in mathematical analysis which would include an introduction to calculus.

DAVE LAWLESS, Sam Stonefield, and Shirley Johnson examine models made in solid geometry to illustrate mathematical principals.

Seniors can earn or lose thousands of dollars in social studies classes by hypothetical investments in stock. Other projects include attending city council meetings, preparing for the constitution test, and planning family budgets. The trend in junior American history classes, as well as many other history courses, is to require term papers for honor roll grades. World and modern European history, both elective courses, have been growing in popularity. The first few minutes of the hour in most social classes is set aside for discussion of current events, which will be tomorrow's history.

Driving films, for the first time, were put on an experimental plateau. The Board of Education rented a drivers' training unit from Taft High School for four weeks and tested its merit in the East High program.

The student is seated in a simulated driver's seat as films of passing street scenes are shown and his reactions are recorded on tape. This unit serves as a supplement to actual road work. Four hours with the unit counts as one hour on the road toward fulfilling the state law requiring twelve driving hours for drivers' education students.

ROTC Cadets Drill in Military Fashion

Armed forces welcome incoming ROTC cadets. Discipline, military procedure, rifle-ry and general skills taught at the high school level condition the cadet for the type of life he will meet in military service and give him a basis for rapid advancement. Patriotism and courtesy to superiors and fellow schoolmates are attitudes encouraged as basic for a military career or civilian life.

MILITARY ATTENTION pervades the air as ROTC faculty perform the six weeks' graded inspection. Sergeant Wertman adjusts Cadet Fred Zeretzke's tie as Sergeant Turner keeps the record.

Non-departmental

DELVING INTO VOLUMES of the Reader's Guide in East's library, Karen Borgstrom searches for sources for her senior theme. Jim Carlson offers his advice on utilizing the library's facilities for research work.

Rounding out the roster of East High faculty, these personnel contribute invaluable service to the school. Mr. Callahan, employment director of all city high schools, visits industries to track down job opportunities. Sight-saving instructor Mrs. Ray, aids students who have difficulty in completing long assignments. Librarians and study hall supervisors establish advantageous study environments and provide research books. Aside from her regular duties, the nurse is responsible for instilling respect for health codes.

Personnel Answer to Demands of Student Body

NURSE EDNA WELKER, with the aid of the Titmus Screener, tests the eyes of junior Kathy Hein. Pupils who are not under the care of an optometrist are checked every other year in Rockford public schools.

SHARING THE LARGE-TYPE DICTIONARY are Sharon Morrell and Gary Urbach. They and other sight-saving students also have access to taped and large print books and a large-type typewriter.

School, Community Honor Students

BARB WARD, Betty Crocker Homemaker of the Year, arranges a table centerpiece.

VOICE OF DEMOCRACY winner, Paul Anderson, and Bob Eksten, Junior Oratorical Contest winner, record their speeches.

Superior Achievement

Within the school and community, able students are recognized individually as well as in groups. The Top Ten boys and girls represent consistent excellence in all fields of study while individual awards give credit to outstanding talent in one field. Special assemblies at the end of the school year honor outstanding leaders in all areas of school life.

Students Distingui

Nation and statewide competitions give greater opportunity and challenge to those with special abilities. Various activities and field trips sponsored by science, math, and engineering clubs foster interest in advanced competitions. In many cases East students have distinguished themselves by excellent showings in such contests and have gone on to become noted in their chosen fields of study.

RECIPIENTS OF THE SAR and DAR awards, Craig Carlson and Donna Stickling, examine the Freedom Shrine, placed in the cafeteria by these two organizations.

ONE OF THE 356 semifinalists in the Westinghouse Science Talent Search, Doug Nelson looks for information for his winning paper entitled, "Cultivating Antibiotic Producing Organisms from the Soil."

RICK MARKLUND glances at his speech before placing second in the sectional contest.

Themselves in State, National Contests

PACKING AWAY their instruments after a practice session are Clare Hall, Sharon Fotzler, and Brian Franzen, who were chosen from among top orchestra members in the state to play at a national music education conference in Chicago.

Custodial, Cafeteria

MRS. ALICE WETTERSTRAND, manager of the East High cafeteria, supervises all 25 members of the staff.

Spanking white uniforms and good humor best describe a bustling cafeteria staff that works tirelessly to meet the demands of six consecutive lunch periods. In addition to cooking for more than 1000 hungry E-Rabs, they prepare a variety of specialties, keep the kitchen orderly, and compose the lunchroom for afternoon study halls.

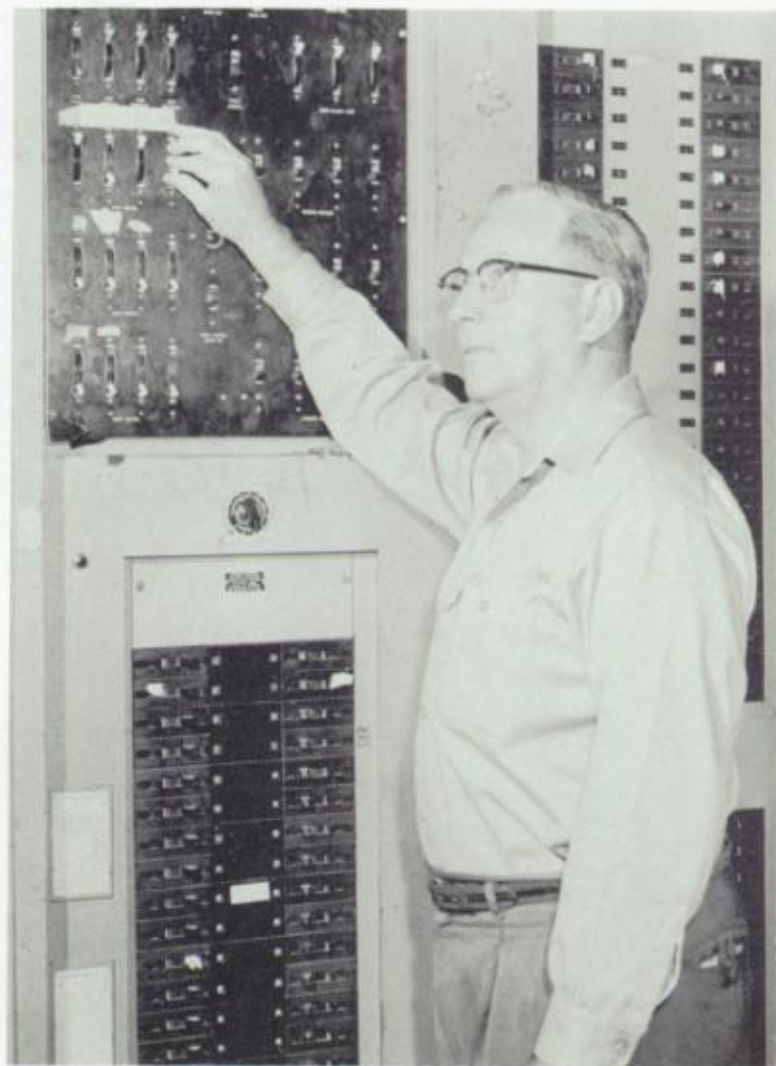

Seated: Rose Johnson, Gulli Carlson, Winefred Faust, Madge Swanson, Elizabeth Johnson, Doris Gustafson, Clara Carlson, Esther Wilson, and Doris Johnson. Standing: Wilma Swanson, Ella Sodergren, Ella Johnson, Corinne Olson, Gladys Fredrickson, Margaret Johnson, Kirsten St. Annette Haines, Gertrude Erickson, Alyce Okerlund, Stella Johnson, Alice Wetterstrand, Jean Mic and Elsie Andreen. Absent: Mildred Skoog and Stella Witkowski.

Staffs Maintain Order in East High's Schedule

East High's orderly appearance is the result of efficient care and long hours of the custodial staff. Their work is not regulated by the ringing of the bell, but stretches beyond the hours of the regular school day. Apart from the regular school year, many summer hours are spent preparing the building for the coming term.

MR. GEORGE BENSON, custodial engineer, demonstrates his skill in operating the stage lights in the auditorium.

DOING THEIR TASKS of keeping the halls tidy are Ruth White, Moderna Ellis, and Vincenzo Caiozzo.

SHOWN AS THEY ADJUST the ropes backstage in the auditorium are Claude Renschler, Leo Naughton, Roy Andreen, and Al Gambini.

Class of '62

As the Class of '62 entered East High in the fall of 1959, a new day dawned in the lives of its members. The days progressed, filled with studies and new experiences until the twilight of their high school days — their senior year. The twilight quickened as homecoming, the senior mixer, the holiday season, senior themes, and the class play sped by. All too quickly, the prom, baccalaureate, and commencement brought the setting of the sun on this era of their lives and left only a glow of memories on the far horizon.

SERVING AS OFFICERS for the senior class are Glenn Tindell, vice-president; Mary Jo Bernard, secretary; and Mary Ellen Carlson, treasurer.

Class of '63

Gil LaCroix
President

According to William Shakespeare, "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players." High school is only one short act in Life's profound play. During Scene I, their sophomore year, students catch a glimpse of the means and methods by which they hope to progress from an inexperienced amateur to the accomplished professional who emerges at the end of Scene II, their senior year. The junior year and all of its memorable events act as the interlude that links these two brief but important scenes.

BARBARA JOHNSON, Carol Peterson, and Bev MacCullum complete the foursome of class leaders for the juniors.

Class of '64

Dick Pearson
President

September 6, 1961, opened the door to a new era in the lives of 896 very excited and somewhat frightened sophomores. The halls of East High were to hold many new experiences, including voting in class elections and participating in the school's extra-curricular activities. As the year advanced, so did the sophomores as they grew in knowledge through their study and recreational life. The door to sophomore life closed with the class party, and these students will next enter the portals of East as upperclassmen, ready and eager for further learning.

ASSOCIATIONS

Dim house lights, an expectant audience, a soft light illumines a musical score, and another organization scores a hit for East. Cooperation and team work pay off.

We spotlight interest groupings at East.

GARY JOHNSON, drum major, leads the band during practice for the Veterans Day Parade.

Whether going through the maneuvers of "Diet Riot" at Beyer Stadium or playing for the annual spring concert, this year's East High Concert Band turned in consistently top performances.

One of the highlights of the band's busy schedule was the halftime presentation of "Wheels" under the direction of Mr. Gordon Bueschel at the homecoming game.

The Concert Band made the annual trip to Northwestern University in Evanston for Band Day, marched in the Veterans Day Parade and the Memorial Day Parade, and climaxed an eventful year with the annual spring concert on April 29.

Sinfonietta Musicians Add Final Spark to Operetta

During the autumn operetta practices, forty East High Sinfonietta members are often seen in the pit contending with a mad array of instruments, cases, and music clustered about them. But while confusion may be evident on the outside, the month of practice ends with warm feelings of accomplishment and pride.

Sinfonietta, a group of accomplished and well-trained musicians, meets weekly.

Performances during the past year were the junior play, operetta, and the National Honor Society assembly.

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Mr. Linden Lundstrom, East High Sinfonietta members make final preparations for this year's operetta, "Song of Norway."

Sophomores Prepare for Concert Orchestra

Demonstrating the techniques acquired during the year, the Soph Orchestra played for the concert on May 13 and the Music Festival on May 27. They received silver treble clef pins in mid-February at the tea and if they qualified, participated in Sinfonietta.

Consisting of 42 members directed by Mr. Dana Connell, the busy group turned their talents to other fields by decorating the orchestra homecoming float and selling fruitcakes.

Diligently To Achieve Successful Performances

"Saying very little and spending most of third hour keeping the A Cappella members singing" is the philosophy of Mr. Linden Lundstrom, A Cappella instructor.

"Song of Norway," the operetta, opened the busy year for the choir and was followed by preparation for the Christmas assembly. A Cappella also took part in the Spring Music Festival and presented the annual choir concert. Singing for the baccalaureate and commencement services ended the year for the choir.

Officers were Richard Jensen, president; Stuart Nelson, vice-president; Judy Stonis, secretary; Nancy Norman, treasurer; and Jan Geiger, alumni secretary.

IN FEBRUARY, Mr. Linden Lundstrom received a nine weeks leave of absence from the Board of Education for a study-tour of choral music in Germany.

KATHY MURAWSKI, Carolyn Karceski, Judy Warner, Sandy Jacobson, and Kathy Zahm present a different aspect of the Folk Dancers' techniques while performing in the Peer Gynt Ballet in the operetta.

Folk Dancers

Kynkkaliepakka, Lott'ist Tod, Tra-la-la Ja Saa, Weave the Wadmäl. These unusual names are dances that Folk Dancers perfected this year under the direction of Mr. Linden Lundstrom.

During the fourth hour practice periods, emphasis was placed on learning new dances, as well as perfecting the old.

The reward for hours of toil came when the group performed, in authentic Swedish costumes, for organizations throughout the city.

Dances from all parts of the world were featured in the annual Folk Dance Festival on May 18.

PRACTICING in Swedish costumes are S. Jacobson, N. Blade, C. Karceski, M. Olson, K. Murawski, and B. Brees.

Programs

TREBLE CLEF members sit down to dinner at the annual fall get-acquainted picnic.

"In Dulci Jubilo," "O Rejoice Ye Christians" "Sapphic Ode," and "May Night" were chosen by the Treble Clef Choir and mastered under the direction of Mrs. Florence Shugars.

The fifty-four members of the all-girl chorus took part in the operetta, "Song of Norway," the Christmas assemblies, the Spring Music Festival.

The girls learned both secular and sacred music in preparation for the appearances they made for various organizations and churches.

GATHERED AROUND the piano are Treble Clef officers Sharon Wright, president; Sue Long, vice-president; and standing, Connie Johnson, secretary; Vicki Nelson, treasurer.

Glee Club Adds Sight-singing to Class Activities

Sight-singing, a method by which club members are able to sing unfamiliar music without first hearing it, was a class-time activity introduced this year in Glee Club.

Students first learn to sing notes in different scale patterns which become progressively more difficult. With this experience, they are able to sing new songs by sight.

The organization, under the direction of Mr. Linden Lundstrom, was accompanied by Sue Newton and Kathleen Key.

LOOKING OVER special selections for one of their programs are the Glee Club officers, Nancy Johnson, treasurer; Dan Bennett, president; Doug Gerke, vice president; Louise Hoffman, secretary.

20th Century Enthusiasts Study Civil War

"Boom!" A cannon fired on Fort Sumter, North Carolina, on April 12, 1861, starting the bloodiest war, up to that time, in American history.

Discussing various phases of that war was the objective of numerous Civil War Roundtable speakers.

Principal James W. Welsh showed the club articles dating back before the Civil War. Among the items were some letters written by his grandfather who was a soldier in the Union Army.

WHILE PRESIDENT Danny Leifel locates an important Civil War battlefield, Betsy Ballinger and Craig Carlson look on. Other officers for the year were Bill Larson, vice-president; Sue Evans, secretary; Tom Hallock, treasurer.

Prospective Engineers Plan College Curriculums

With booklets supplied by the Junior Engineering Technical Society of New York City, Junior Engineers planned their college curriculum under the guidance of adviser, Mr. Walter Boguski.

Highlighting the year's activities were a tour of the local Special Machine and Tool Company.

EUGENE LAWSON, Larry Peterson, Jerry McRoberts, president, and Allan Nelson, vice-president, are discussing special equipment displayed at one of their meetings. Other officers were Bruce Lawson, secretary, and Gordon Samuelson, treasurer.

Stage Crew Has Busy Year 'Behind Scenes'

STAGE CREW — P. Hanson, A. DeGroote, C. Anderson, K. Johnson, S. Beutsch, J. Gulbrantson, B. Long, P. Rehahn.

How many people would be interested in giving up seventh hour, staying very late after school, working very hard — and always “staying behind the scenes?”

Stage Crew, directed by Mr. Linden Lundstrom, is such a group. Their hard work came to light the nights of operetta and senior play performances.

Stage Crew members learn everything from staging techniques to working with power tools or hanging a door.

Eastites Trade, Sell Stamps, Coins at Auctions

“I bid a quarter!” “I’ll raise that bid five cents!” “For that you can have it!” and so ends a typical auction sale for Coin and Stamp Club.

The past year’s meetings under the direction of Mr. William Aleks dealt largely with the trading and selling of coins and stamps.

Officers were Gordon Lundin, president; Perry Putz, vice-president; Dennis Anderson, secretary-treasurer.

Guides Yearbook Editors to '62 Argus Format

"New" was the password for the Argus staff this year as it proceeded to change and modify many past traditions.

For the first time all junior and senior pictures were taken during the summer to relieve the staff of rushed deadlines and to leave the bookroom free during the first two months of school. Many other problems were solved as staff members published the '62 Argus at the Norman King Company, Park Ridge, Illinois.

Moving after Christmas vacation to a new location in room 128 gave the Argus staff the needed room in which to work more efficiently.

Selling advertising contracts, balancing ledgers, mailing and distributing paid subscriptions, staging and managing the talent show — all are listed on the roster of Publication's Business Staff "musts."

Both school publications are combined in one department under one business staff to keep both financially sound. By meticulous work, they accomplished the difficult; with foresight, they allowed for added equipment at the new publications headquarters, room 128.

A newly constructed darkroom in Room 128 became the student photo staff headquarters where many of the pictures for the Argus and Highlights were taken, developed and printed.

The staff consists of four photographers, who buy their own chemicals and film, and a photo secretary, who takes care of the filing and billing. Photographers are re-imbursed from publications for those pictures which are chosen by the staffs and which have met the established deadlines.

Quill and Scroll Is Top Goal of Journalists

Quill and Scroll Society at the State University of Iowa performs a dual journalistic function.

As an international rating service, it provides critical estimates of all member student newspapers. In recognizing individual accomplishments, it also grants awards to outstanding newspapers and honorary memberships to capable journalists.

FRED JOHNSON, Cheryl Brown, Tom Eggers, Charles Wellington, and Bill Adin were elected to Quill and Scroll as juniors. Members of the local chapter the senior year, Fred, Cheryl, Tom, and Bill, elected new members for spring initiation.

Student Government Leaders Teach

DECORATING THE GYM for "Indian Summer," the homecoming dance, are Jan Geiger, Tom Hallock, and Jill Forsell.

Student Council President Charles Wellington declared, "Does someone wish to call for the question?" and Student Council voted the theme "Indian Summer" for the annual Homecoming.

Led by the five member executive board and advised by Miss Catherine Needham, the Council directed student government, taught proper voting procedures, and planned student activities.

Following Homecoming and several after-game dances, a "Be Neat" campaign was launched stressing cleanliness in the cafeteria, and buses were chartered for out of town games.

Because of the new re-districting plan approved at the Northeast-Northwest Convention, the Student Council will no longer meet with larger schools from the Northeastern section of Illinois, but with smaller schools from the Northwestern section.

When spring came, a "swing your partner" call set the pace as couples danced at the Student Council Mixer, March 31.

As the year drew to a close, a complete revision of the student handbook was finished and the new Council bookstore went into full swing.

NHS Inductees Receive Membership

LOOKING OVER stationery designed for sales this year are NHS members Joyce Olson and Susan Long.

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this society"

Solemnly, the new inductees repeated the oath during the National Honor Assembly, May 16.

New members were preceded to the stage by second semester president, John McIlwain, and second semester secretary, Carol Marie Johnson. Thirty-three members elected to the society last year also participated.

Under the direction of Miss Sue Patrick, treasurer-adviser, NHS members sold East High stationery to help pay the cost of the spring ceremony.

Foreign Literature

Rodgers and Hammerstein's Broadway classic, The Sound of Music, was the Chicago production highlighting the ABL year.

Designed to increase appreciation and understanding of literary masterpieces, ABL explored the various facets of literature in a year-long program.

Anne Gullickson's descriptive talk on her AFS sojourn in Indonesia, Jurgen Anlauf's and Verinha de Moraes discussion of their countries' literature, book reviews, and various artistic representations reflected the versatility of members.

Christmas Surprise

Christmas shopping is something special for FTA members. This year the club started the annual project by treating twenty-five children from the Children's Home to breakfast at the Bishop Cafeteria. Then each was taken on a two hour shopping trip through downtown Rockford with spending money provided.

Officers were Jill Forsell, president; Karen Vaughn, vice - president; Mary Gouker, secretary; Jan Geiger, treasurer; and Mary Ellen Carlson, social chairman.

ON THE CHRISTMAS shopping trip, Barbara Ward helps a girl from the Children's Home select a game.

BRIGHT EYED and excited, three little boys from the Children's Home choose breakfast at Bishop Cafeteria as Marcia Willson and Darlene Christian help maneuver their trays.

AFS Uses '2 in '62' Theme for Fund Drive

"Two in '62" was the AFS theme, as members launched a campaign to raise enough money for two foreign exchange students to attend East in 1963.

Tag Day on February 9 and the student - faculty basketball game swelled the fund, as East High clubs again made donations through their representatives on the AFS Council.

Officers were Anne Gullickson, president; Marcia Willson, vice-president; Teresa Lucey, secretary; and Sue Muehlemeyer, treasurer.

AFS STUDENT Anne Gullickson displays articles she brought back from her summer stay in Indonesia.

Debaters' Engage in All-day Tourney Weekends

"Honorable judge, worthy opponents . . ." "We of the negative contend . . ." "We, the affirmative, have shown beyond a doubt . . ." and a debate case goes to the judges for a decision.

Quote cards, case outlines, trembling knees, and enthusiastic, sometimes heated words, are familiar to East's debaters.

Highlights of the debate year included three two-day tourney trips.

Y-Teens Have Members from 4 Area Schools

"To help everyone grow as a person is our club's main goal," emphasized Linda Glans, president of Y-Teens.

This year's club of thirty members from East, West, Harlem, and Auburn featured an international supper with the foreign exchange students of the area schools.

Under the direction of Miss Jane Lyons, Y-Teen's other officers include Jean Picchioni, vice-president; Gail Pieri, secretary; and Darlene Rose, treasurer.

186-A Staff, Rifle Team

CADET PFC JAMES HEUER proudly displays the ROTC colors.

Developing better citizens through military-type training is the purpose of the Reserve Officer Training Corps.

Although ROTC places no military obligation on any cadet, the training he receives will be of benefit if he enters the armed forces.

Cadets participate in competitive drill, Federal Inspection, in the Memorial Day and Veterans' Day Parades, and extra-curricular activities.

This year the ROTC rifle team achieved a record of fifteen wins and four losses. Competition included shoulder to shoulder matches in three states and postals with other schools.

Rockford East Captures Big Eight Conference Title

After opening the season with a victory over Beloit, East lost its next game to North Chicago. A seven win record in Big Eight conference play placed the E-Rabs in first place.

The combination of the finest defense in the conference and a strong, high-scoring offense proved to be the key to the Rabs' success. In conference play, the Rabs scored a total of ninety-three points, holding their opponents to twenty-one.

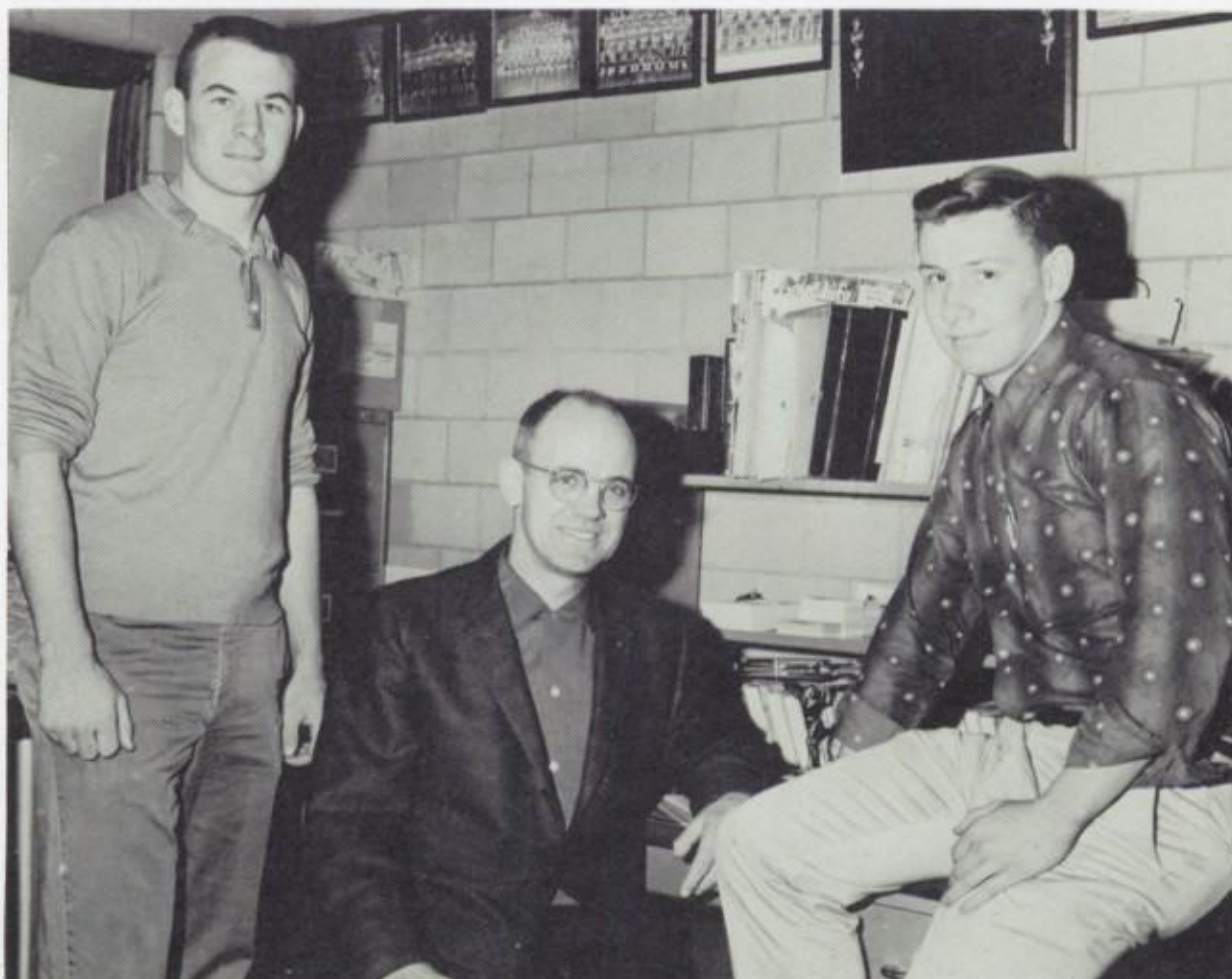

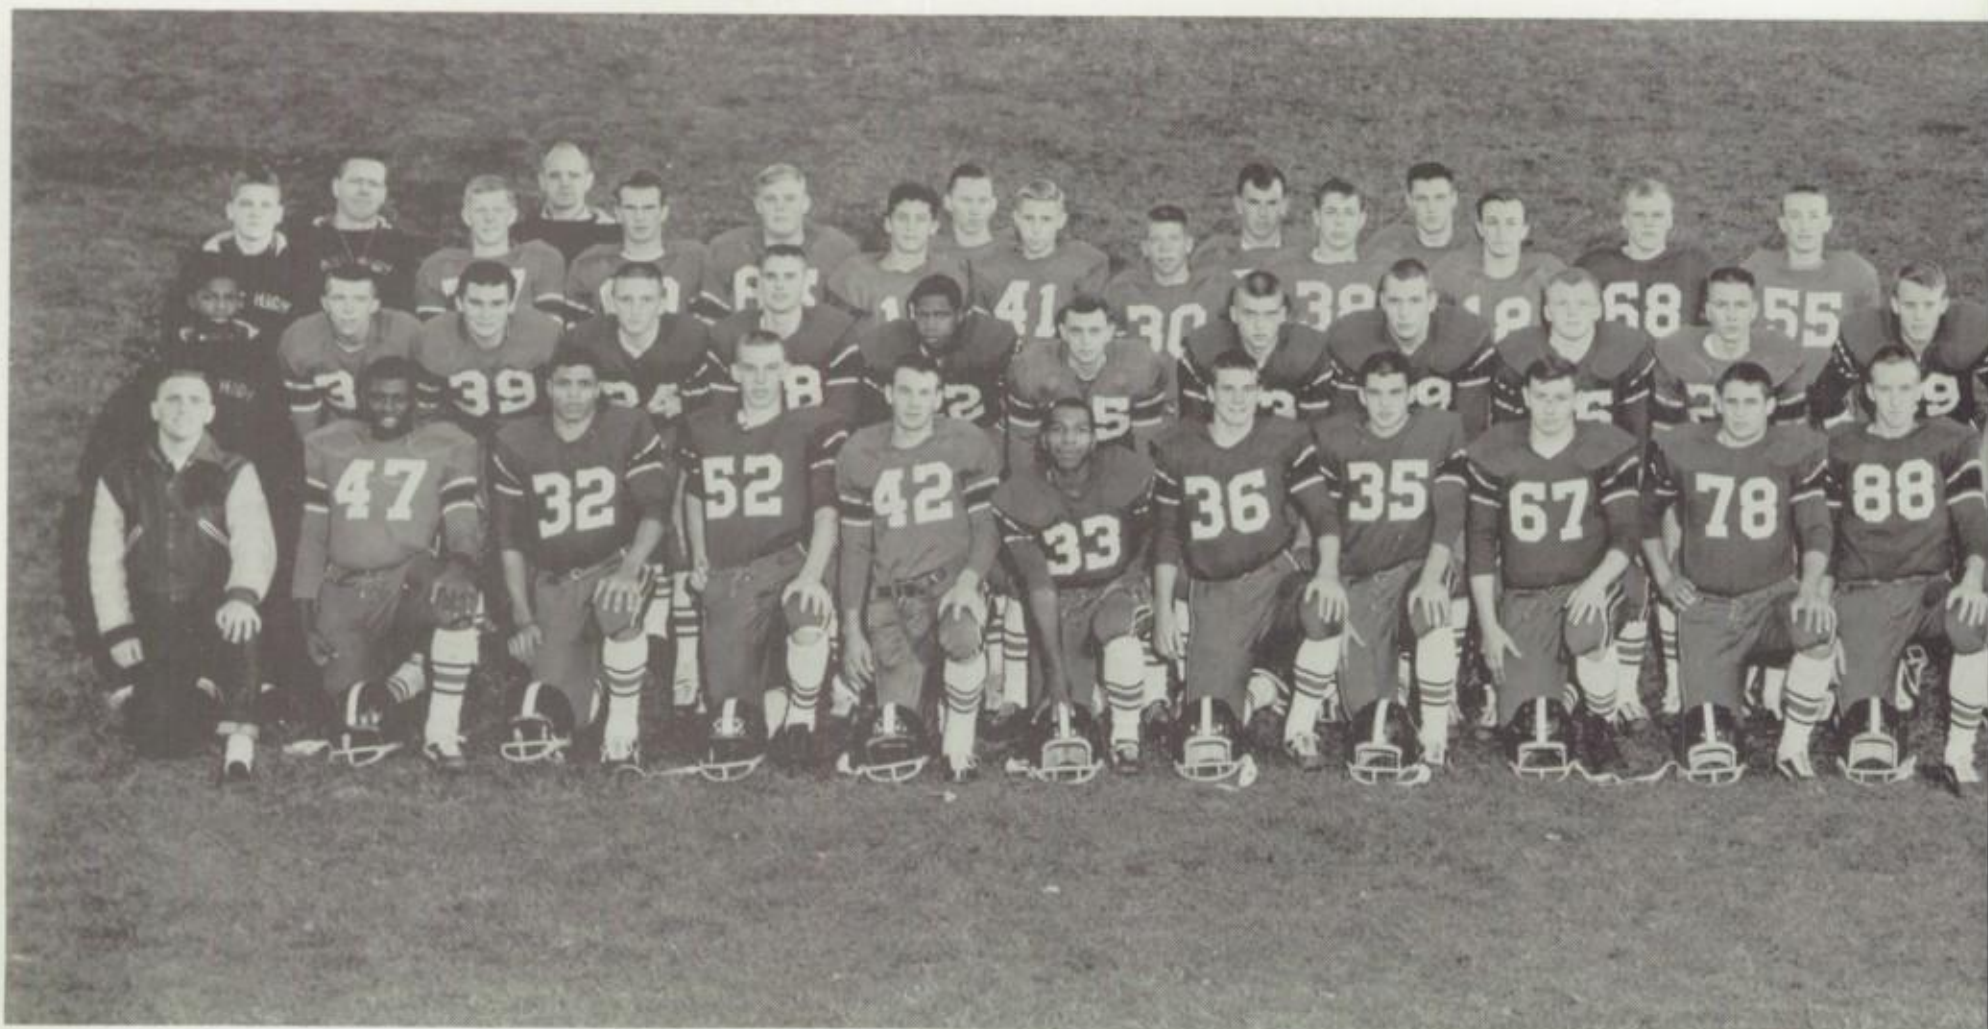

LONESOME END Ken Franzen (52) goes high in the air to catch a pass during the North Chicago game. Coming on to assist is halfback Larry Dawson (36).

Traditional East-West Meet

After downing cross-town rival West, 33-7, in the final game of the season, 29 senior members of the varsity team said farewell to high school football participation.

Playing in three homecoming games during the season, the E-Rabs were successful.

At L-P's homecoming, the Rabs won 7-0. In the E-Rab homecoming clash, the Rabs downed Aurora East, 20-0. The following week, East Played Elgin at their homecoming and defeated them 13-7.

Eleven Senior Gridders Compile Efficient Squad

Seniors composed the starting eleven for the E-Rabs. The offensive backfield was made up of Charlie Martin and Larry Dawson at halfback positions, with Ken Polaski and Jim Hawkins at fullback spots.

Gary Stried ran the team from his quarterback spot. Ken Franzen and John Strait started at the ends.

Sophomores Struggle for Little Eight Berth

Although the record for the East sophomore team wasn't as impressive as it might have been, the team was highly potent with the know-how to beat any team in the league. The sophs finished the season with a 2 win, 4 loss and 3 tie record. The team's potential was pointed out again and again during the season as they came from behind to tie and then gain the lead.

All of the losses were by a touchdown or less and could have gone East's way with only a few lucky breaks.

The highlight of the Rablets' season came when they defeated cross-town rival West Rockford, 19-7.

Cross Country Squad Captures Big Eight Title

COACH JOHN RESCHLEIN and captain Bob Culbertson show off the Big Eight trophy that was won by the Harrier team this season.

After finishing a successful season against conference and non-conference teams, East's Harrier squad captured the Big Eight trophy.

Juniors and sophomores comprised the basic part of the squad, with only one senior running regularly in all meets.

Junior Bob Culbertson clocked in as the fastest Harrier in East's history, with Nestor White, also a junior, being the third fastest. Both of these boys are Coach John Reschlein's hopes for next year's squad.

ROTC Enters Three Teams in Intramurals

For the first time in the history of the school, the ROTC entered teams in the intramural basketball competition. The ROTC had four teams in the league, while the gym classes had eight.

There were two leagues for the first time. The American league played their games on Monday and Wednesday, while the National league played their games on Tuesday and Thursday.

Approximately 100 boys were able to participate in the program.

INTRAMURAL PLAYERS vie in a center jump as a team member looks on. All games were played under the supervision of Bill King, physical education teacher, who was in charge of the program.

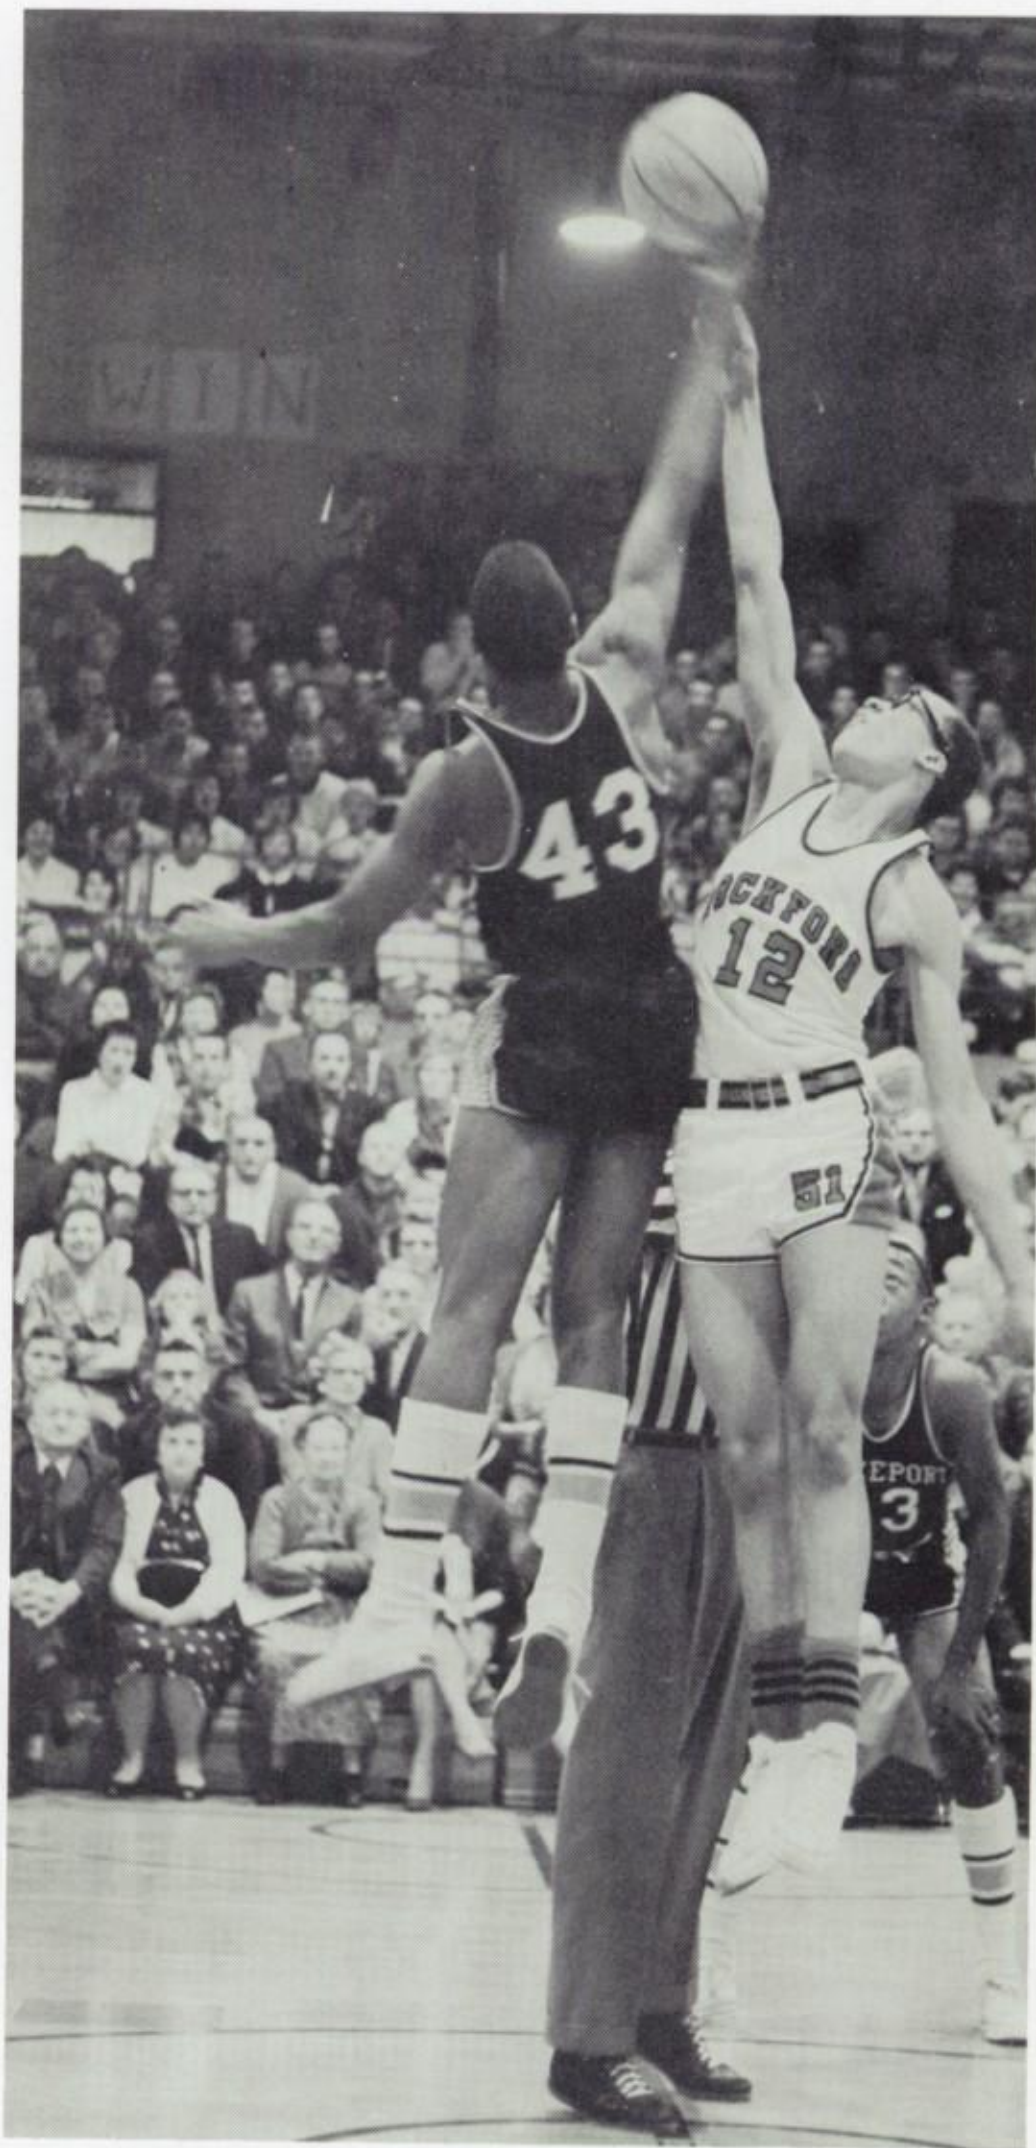

High Hopes Highlight East's Basketball Season

Highlighting the E-Rab basketball season was the Christmas Holiday Tournament. East and West Rockford played host to Libertyville and LaGrange. East defeated both these teams while West came out on the short end of the score in two tournament games.

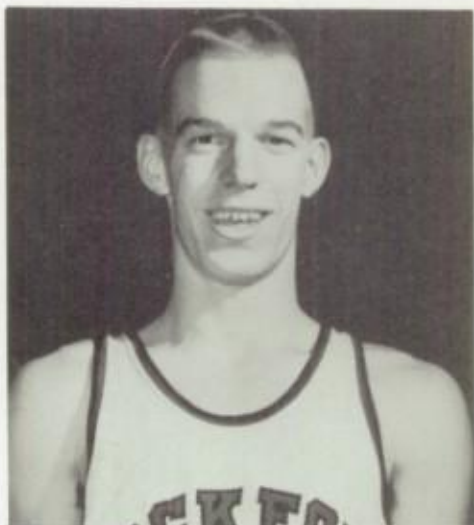

East's triumph over LaGrange was one of only two losses that LaGrange absorbed during the regular season.

During the closing games of the season, East switched from a deliberate style of offense to a fast breaking style that proved very effective.

The Rab finished with a three win six loss record in Big Eight play.

MARK GIBSON, 32, and Steve Gross, 34, reach for the ball while Randy Weick, 13, waits expectantly at the start of the East-Freeport game.

East's sophomore team was packed with explosive power. Even though the record stood at 5 wins and 16 losses, the Rablets were capable of rallying in the late quarters of many games.

Mark Gibson was the standout for the team as he captured both the scoring and rebounding titles.

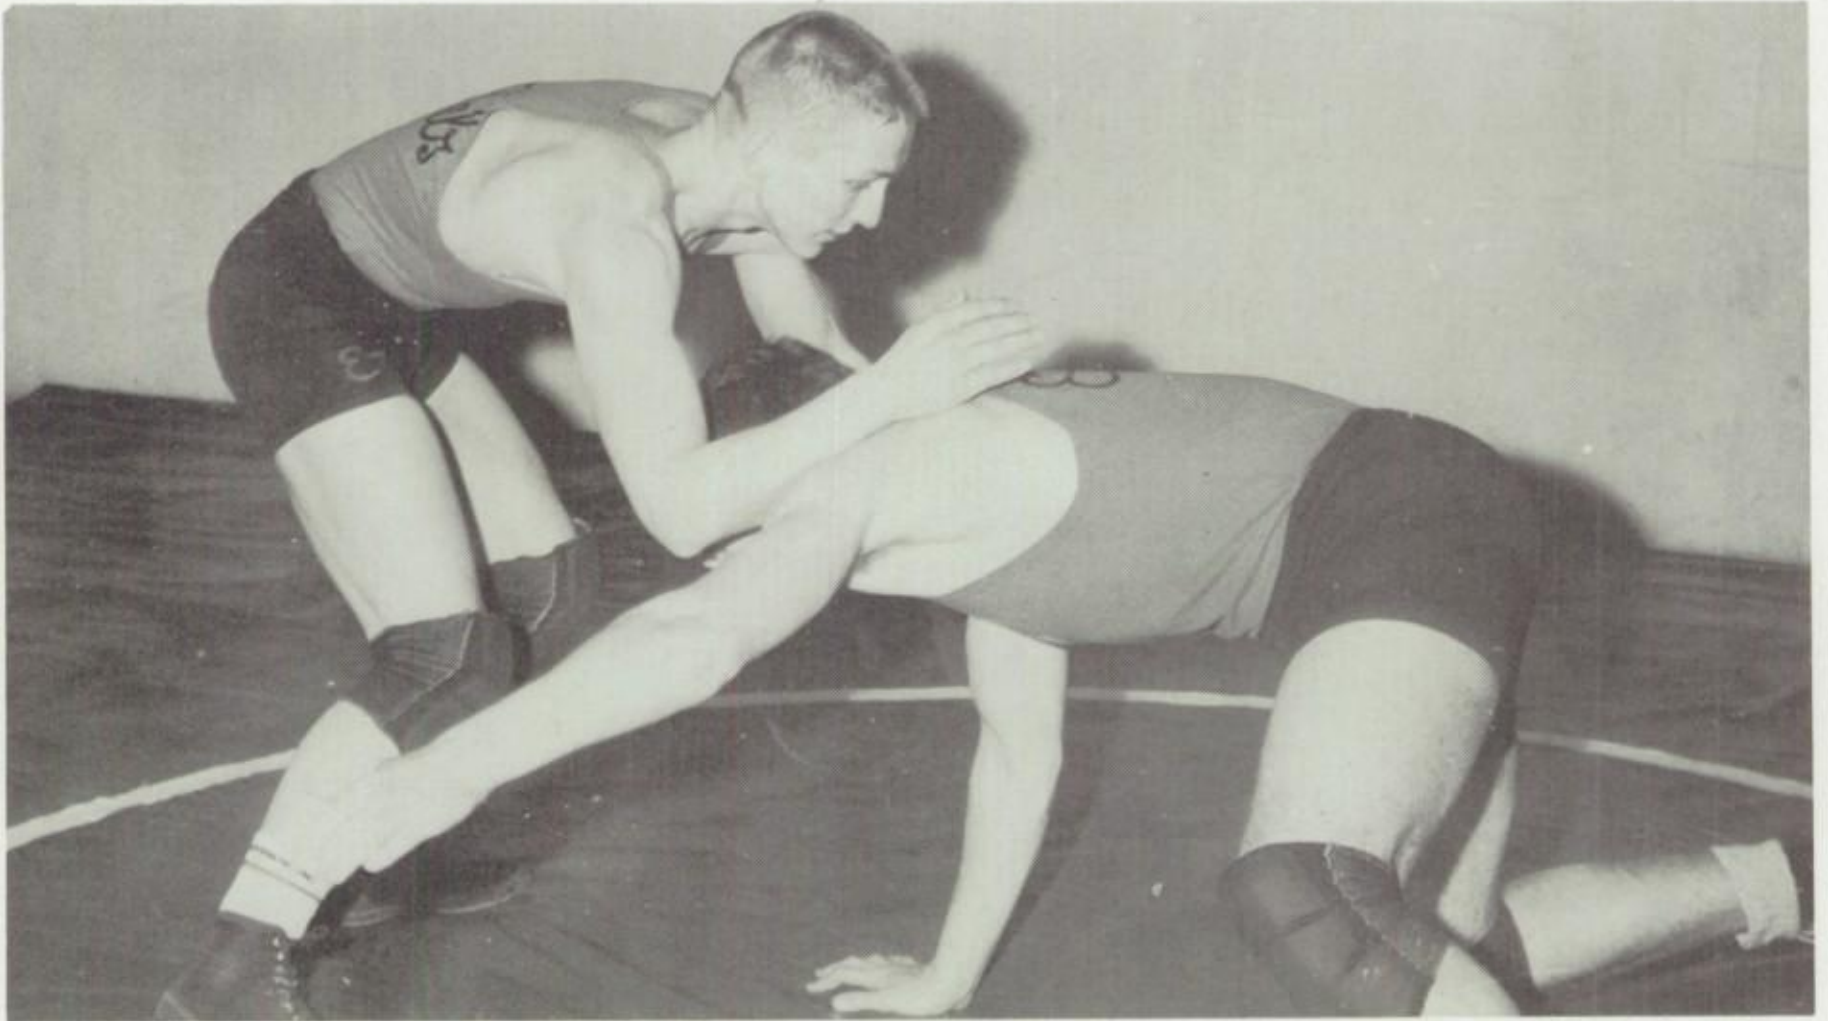

The soph's finished conference play with a one win, nine loss record; their lone win coming over crosstown rival West Rockford.

The captains were Mark Gibson and Jim Foster.

on Top in District Meet

Capturing the title in the district meet capped a successful season for the wrestling squad.

East sent eleven grapplers to the sectional, with two of them, Gerry Donahue and Alan Powell, placing fourth.

In regular season meets, East had a record of nine wins and four losses.

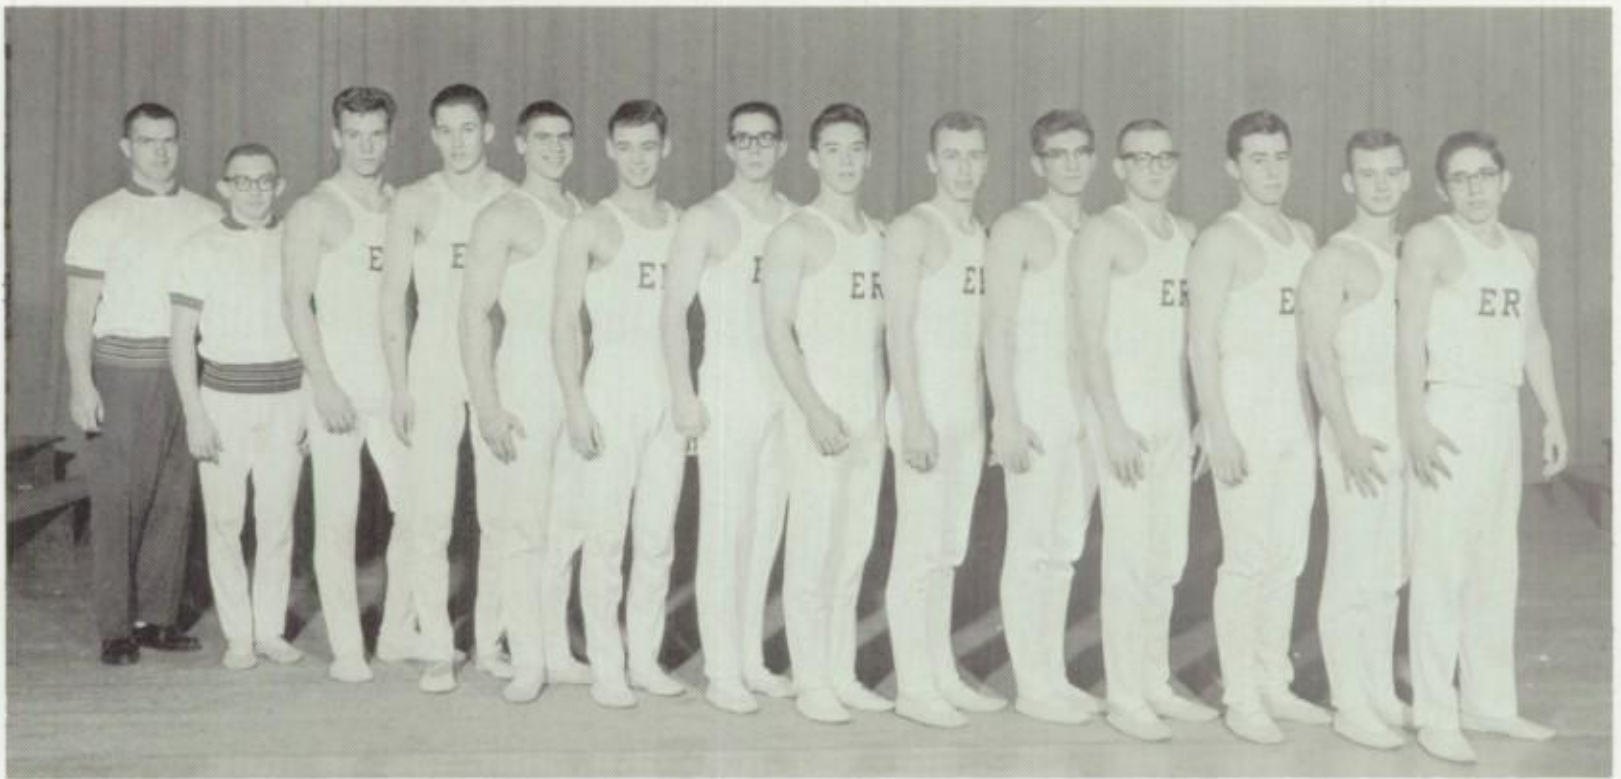

Gary Giardini had the best record of all the East grapplers with a record of twenty wins and only one loss.

Seniors Gary Giardini and Tom Johnson were elected captains for the season.

The outlook for 1963 is bright because seven of the twelve varsity wrestlers were juniors this year.

Gymnastics Team Completes Second Official Year

This was the second official season for the East gymnastics team. Under the direction of Mr. William King, the Rabbs competed in several meets throughout the winter months.

Most of the team was comprised of seniors, but Mike Allen and Bob Henderson are included in coach King's hopefuls for next year's team.

Highlighting the season was the appearance of the Iowa University gymnastics team.

Tankers Splash Their Way to Big Eight Victory

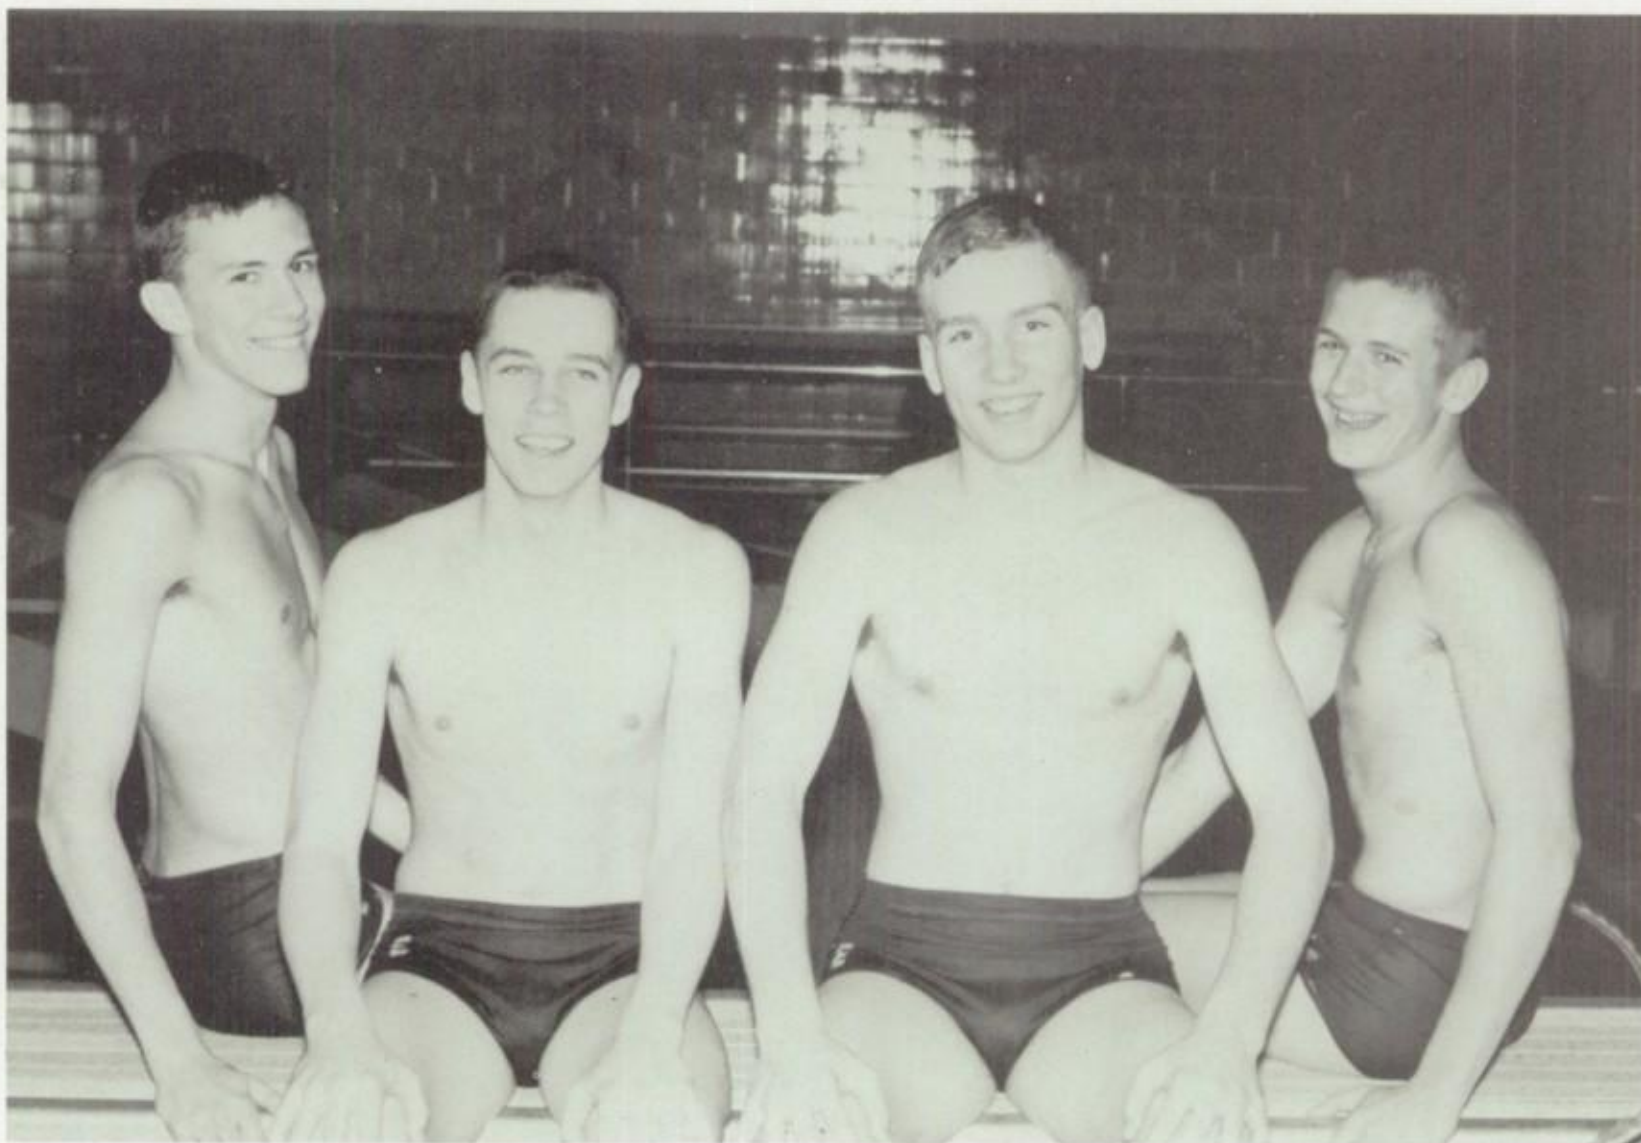

CAPTAIN GIL LaCROIX talks over strategy with Coach Vito Lopin.

Capturing the Big Eight title topped a successful season for the East swimmers.

The E-Rabs made a habit of winning the meets in which they entered. They finished the season with twelve wins and only two defeats in dual meet competition.

Gil LaCroix, a junior, was elected captain for the season by his teammates and proved that he was worthy of the selection by setting two conference records in the district meet. His record breaking performances came in the 500-yard freestyle and the individual medley.

Lopinmen Succeed in Capturing District Title

EAST'S record-breaking relay team consisted of Rick Ball, Gil LaCroix, Dick Stohl, and Don Kail.

SENIOR DIVER Bill Johnson executes a perfect jack-knife.

East's medley relay team sank one conference record in the district meet. Because the team was composed of two juniors, Steve Lunde and Gerry Pearson, and two sophomores, John Lindley and Will Kjellstrom, the outlook for the 1963 medley team is exceptionally bright.

Senior Bill Johnson stood out in the district diving competition by breaking a fourteen-year-old mark.

Sophomore Will Kjellstrom tied the record in the 50-yard freestyle.

Intramural Golf Enjoys First Season at East

Intramural golf was introduced at East this year with Coach Bill King as head of the program.

Boys who competed played individual matches at the local golf courses and reported their scores to Mr. King.

The program was run as a round-robin with winners playing the winners of other matches.

Pitching Machine Adds to Rabs' Indoor Practice

With several old faces and many new additions, the Rabsox outlook was bright.

The lineup at the beginning of the season included Barney Johnson, Ron Carlson, Al Torgerson, John Calvert, and Vick Allen in the infield. Craig Stalcup, Jim Freed, and Ken Franzen composed the outfield. The battery was composed of Dave Berglund behind the plate, and either Dan Bennett or Reuel Johnson on the mound.

East hoped to improve on its 1961 record when the team won only two games in conference play.

Four Lettermen Are Mainstay of Tennis Team

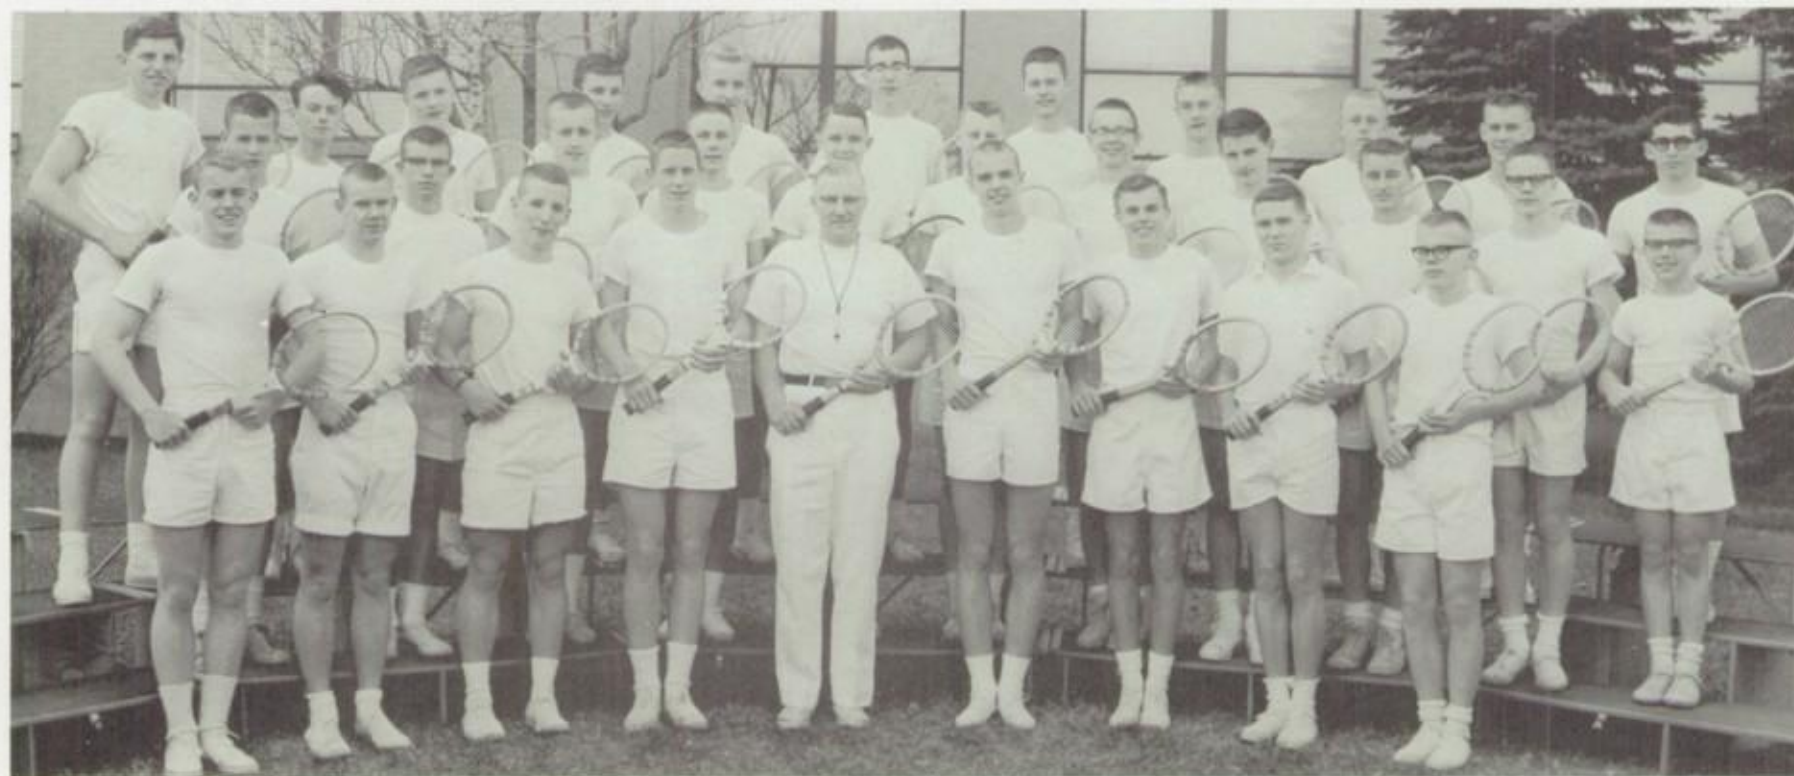

NUMBER ONE MAN, Phil Safford, serves to his opponent.

Four returning lettermen and a transfer letterman from Joliet gave the Palermen a strong base on which to build.

Phil Safford, Kirk Studstrup, Bruce Helm, and Ed Telling all returned for the 1962 season. Pete Benson, a sophomore who lettered his freshman year at Joliet, added his talents to the East team.

The 1961 version of the tennis team was one of the best that East has ever produced. The E-Rab netters won 18 matches, lost none, and won the Big Eight and District Championships.

Rab golfers used all of the city courses this year in regularly scheduled play. Getting an early start in April, the Sadtlermen had matches against all of the city teams plus Freeport, Beloit, DeKalb, and Janesville.

The team members play individually against members of the opposing team with the winner of each individual match adding points to his team's total.

In 1961, the team placed second in the Big Eight, and second in the district. Many junior letter-winners comprised the 1962 team's nucleus.

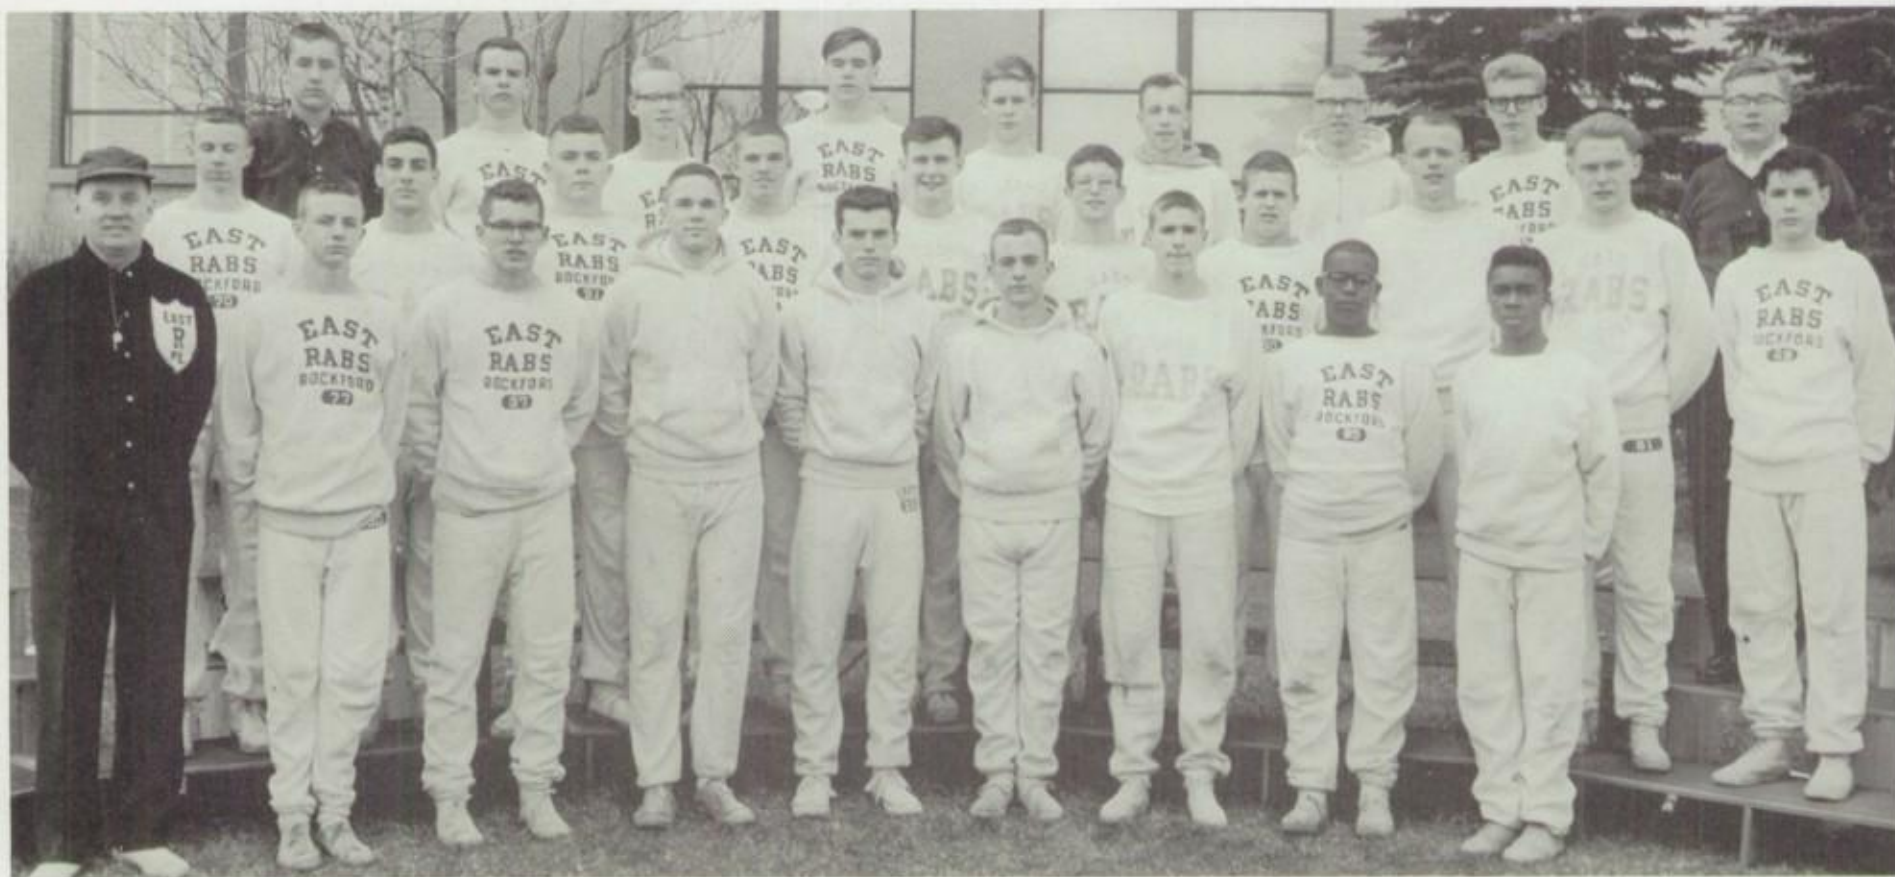

PAUL DIXON "puts" the shot while Coach Robert Pellant watches.

With a nucleus of returning lettermen and a large number of seniors and juniors, the track team was a formidable opponent in all its meets.

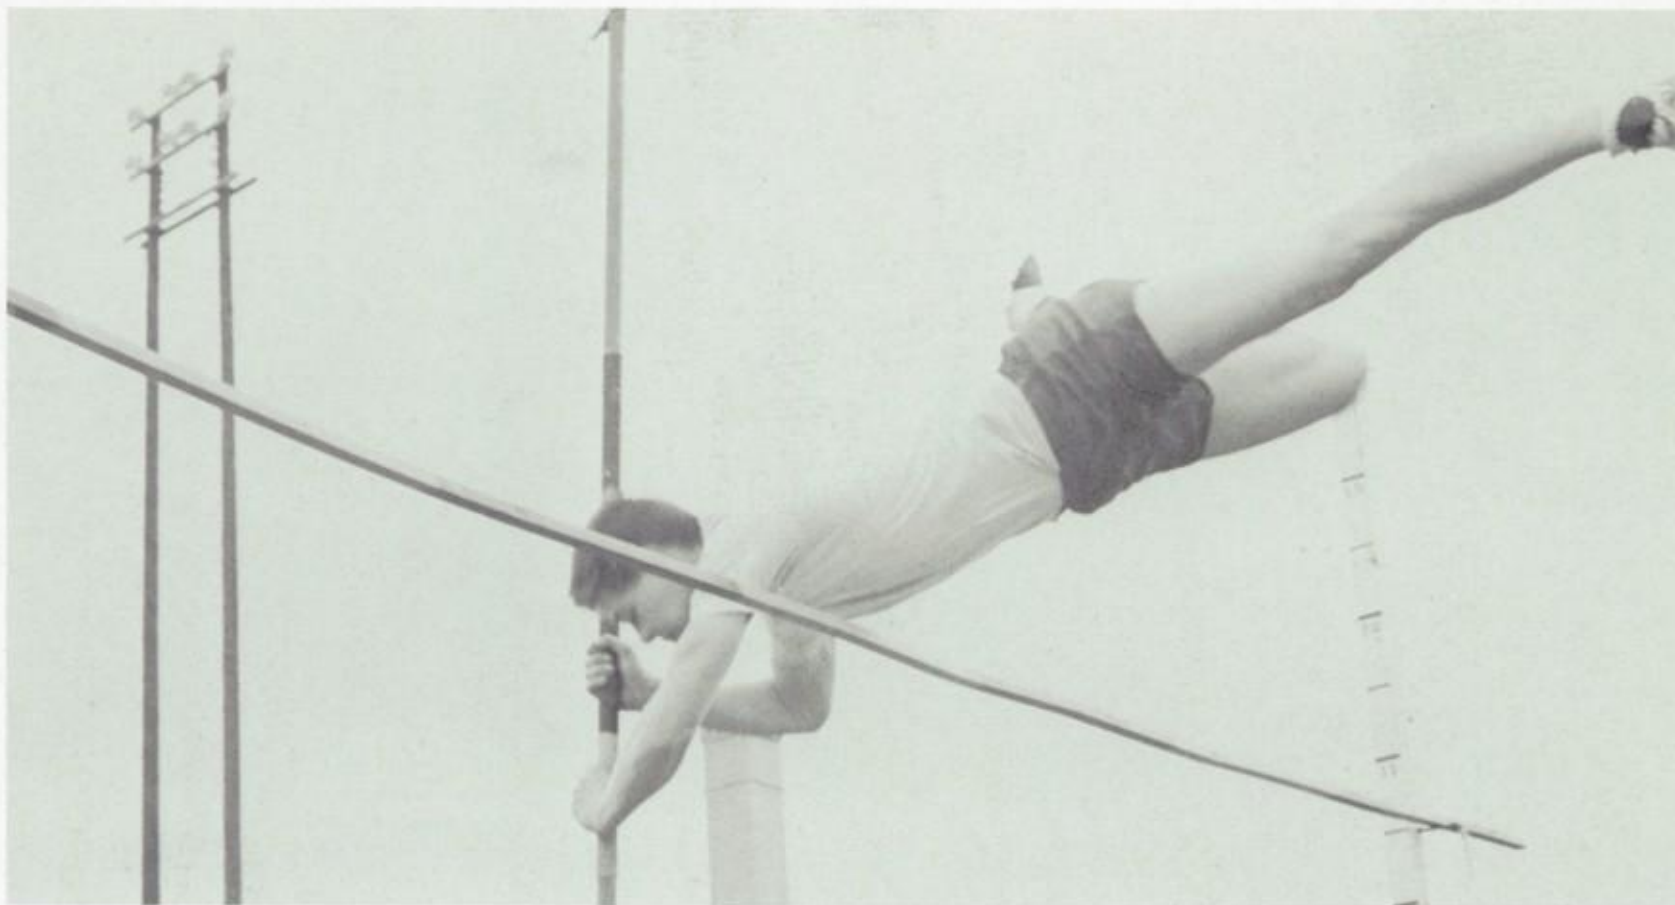

First competition for the trackmen was the inter-class meet on April 10, at which a strong junior team surprised the seniors by winning. May claimed the major meets, including the East Relays, district, state, and Big-Eight Conference meets.

In the 1961 season, East captured the district title for the fifth straight time. With a balanced attack in both the running and field events, East was considered a power in every competition entered.

'Splashes on Broadway' Highlights Dorado Year

TEACHING AQUATIC SKILLS to Dorado members is the duty of the club's officers who are Marcia Karceski, secretary; Miss Virginia Horn, adviser; Mary Thomas, treasurer; Cindy Stonefield, president; Carolyn Karceski, vice-president; and Tina Brogren, sophomore treasurer.

PRACTICING A NUMBER from the Dorado show are Carolyn Karceski, Judy Olson, Jill Holmquist, Betsy Gibbs, Cindy Stonefield, and Kathy Murawski.

"One length to go!" was the cry of Dorado members as they strove for membership in the Mile Club. Revived this year, membership in the club requires the girls to swim eight lengths with the front crawl every week during a nine week period.

In addition to placing fourth in the GAA state postal swim meet, Dorado Club members on May 11 and 12 produced their annual show, "Splashes on Broadway," which featured ballets such as West Side Story.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Sue,
well this year
as we have gone past the time has been our had a lot of fun over this year
all the first we have had a gym dancer we had to do. Remember all the thought they were. Best how we think as being fun. Name what a laugh. Well the best of luck always to a real meet kid.

Love ya.
Jot Cramer.

Neons beckon, marquees flash, beacons shoot through the darkness as a glassy river reflects a growing city. Our bustling community with a bright future supports its schools.

We spotlight our "backer," Rockford.

Sue,

Well, just one year left. So bad we couldn't have been in more classes. But we will always remember History. How could we forget!! Sue, please stay as sweet as ever don't change. Best wishes to a real swell gal.

Sue -
 We have sure had a wonderful time this past year of though it's been alot of study hard work! - Remember hall - and history! - I sure classes hope we can get in some together next year! - Have fun this summer! -
 as always -
 Pat Ferrell

I see,
his year of debate has been fabulous to do a range, and all I. I too just as you are and in sure you'll get the guys you want. I hope next year you'll get up earlier - for the sake of Mr. Barnes' nerves.
Luck always to a wonderful girl.
may ~~Chuck Barnes~~ be happy.

Well, Sue, just about seniors. This year has gone like a flash! This year has been fun?
I haven't news writing been terrible.
those deadlines were terrible.
But have lots of fun this summer.
Love Phyllis Cypzowski

Sue,
you are wonderful.
girl. Keep up the faith.
Best of luck always.

Sue,

It has been so nice knowing you since you moved to Rockford. I feel that Rockford has benefited greatly. I'm so glad that we got to know each other so much better through Y. M. C. I think you're a real great missionary. In a way I think it is really funny that I guessed who you like. I, like everybody else, think he's a fabulous guy and I wish you all the luck in the world with him. Don't pay any attention to my kidding you knew I don't mean it. May God shower his choicest blessings upon you always.

Sue)

It has been fun beeing with you in English. Here's hoping we both get A's on all our finals!! Good luck. Hope to see you this summer + next year. My telephone number is 3996290. Remember to call.

Sue

Mrs. Johnson makes a nice ~~homeroom~~ teacher doesn't she? All of the class talks a lot. Have fun this summer and I will see you next year.

Richard Bulthaus

Sue,

What a year! It's been so much fun in Debate this year. The times you were late on a tournament, the Jr. Oratorical Contest, speeches, our debates - aren't you going to miss them!! (HA) I sure hope we can be in some classes next year. Have a lot of fun this summer and take it easy on the boys! Oh, and thanks again for inviting me out to your church - I had a wonderful time. Best of luck always. You're a very sweet girl and a wonderful friend.

Sincerely,

Sandi Brown

Sue,

This has really been a full year. I'm glad it's over + that shorthand is behind me. Do you think you'll ever get 120 words a minute? I have my doubts. Have fun this summer + best of luck always.

Connie Ekedahl

Sue!

Yee, Shorthand sure was hard!

I never dreamed the day would come when we turned our books in! I am glad!

Have a great summer & a terrific senior year! Best of Luck to a charming girl!

Linda Alm.
